An employee classified as a University Law Enforcement Officer Apprentice shall remain in that classification as long as he/she is in the academy and until he/she has passed the state exam.

The initial probationary period for a University Law Enforcement Officer Apprentice shall end upon completion of the academy and successful passing of the state exam.

The initial probationary period as described in Article 11, section 11.1 shall include time spent in the classification of a University Law Enforcement Officer Apprentice and the FTO training program. The initial probationary period may be extended only for the length of time to complete the FTO program if necessary.

Time spent in the University Law Enforcement Officer Apprentice classification shall not count toward seniority in the University Law Enforcement Officer 1 classification.
