Article 11 - Sanctity of Agreement

Section 11.1

No changes in this Agreement shall be negotiated during the life of this Agreement unless there is written accord by and between both parties to do so. Article 12 - Discipline

Section 12.1

The employer may take disciplinary action against any employee in the bargaining unit only for just cause. The employer may take this type of action while the employee is on duty, or working under the colors of the employer, or in instances where the employee's conduct violates his oath of office. Forms of disciplinary action include:

- A. Counseling (written record);
- B. Verbal admonishment (written record);
- C. Written Reprimand;
- D. At the option of the Police Chief, with the concurrence of the Employee, loss of vacation leave.
- E. Suspension without pay;
- F. Reduction in pay and position;
- G. Removal or discharge from employment.

Section 12.2

The principals of progressive action shall be followed to remedy conduct which is subject to the disciplinary procedure. This progression would normally include a verbal reprimand before a written reprimand, a written reprimand before a suspension, and a suspension before dismissal for the same related offense. The Chief of Police may determine that a different sequence is required.

Section 12.3

Whenever the employer or his designee(s) interview, question, or interrogate bargaining unit members in reference to alleged or suspected misconduct, either in preliminary investigations or in disciplinary hearing, the following conditions shall apply:

- A. Employees being questioned as witness shall be so informed.
- B. Employees suspected of misconduct shall be, during preliminary investigations, apprised of the nature of suspected misconduct as it is known at that time.
- C. Prior to questioning, employees (including witnesses) shall be informed that failure to respond or failure to respond truthfully may result in disciplinary action for insubordination or dishonesty.
- D. Preliminary investigations and disciplinary hearings shall be held either during an employee's scheduled working hours or at time in reasonable proximity to his shift. Disciplinary hearings held outside the employee's scheduled working hours shall be considered time worked.

Section 12.4

In the interest of fair and expeditious corrective action, an employee who has allegedly committed a violation of a minor nature relating to his performance may be interviewed by the City prior to oral correction and counseling of the employee.

An oral reprimand is an official action of record and shall be noted as such by a supervisor. Such reprimand may be used in subsequent progression of discipline. However, oral reprimands noted two years prior to any administrative hearings are to be treated as confidential and shall not be considered in determinations for future disciplinary action with the exception of repeated violations of the same rule, regulation and/or procedure demonstrating a continuing course of conduct which may be considered for future serious disciplinary action for up to five (5) years prior to any administrative hearing.

Section 12.5

A formal charge of misconduct shall be in written form and shall clearly state the violation allegedly committed by the employee. When an employee is charged with misconduct which may result in suspension, reduction, or dismissal, he shall be given, prior to any administrative conference or hearing and within a reasonable time period, a written copy of the charges detailing and specifying the allegations and advising him of his right to be represented by an FOP/OLC representative(s) or the Officer Coordinator or another member of the Police Department at any appearance before an investigator or investigative body. Findings will be issued to the employee after any hearing for which formal charges and specifications have been prepared.

Section 12.6

Upon request of either party made at a reasonable time prior to an administrative conference or hearing, a party may discover any evidence or the identity of any witness to be presented by the other party at the conference or hearing. In the event that new material evidence is developed at the conference or hearing, a continuance may be granted upon request of either party if justice would be best served thereby.

Section 12.7

When a supervisor schedules an employee for an investigative conference for the purpose of determining whether or not the employee has committed an infraction which could result in a disciplinary action of record (written reprimand, suspension or dismissal), the employee has the right to be represented at the conference by an FOP representative(s) or the Officer Coordinator or another member of the Police Department. If an employee requests a representative and a representative is not available at the scheduled time of the conference, the conference may be postponed by the employee for a reasonable time not to exceed seventy-two (72) hours so that the employee can obtain a representative. An investigative conference is a meeting between an employee and his supervisor at a prescribed time and place after the occurrence of the alleged offense. No such investigative conference shall be held until the employee has had the opportunity to obtain such representation or has waived in writing such right.

Section 12.8

The grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement shall be the exclusive means of appeal of all disciplinary actions, and no appeal may be taken to the Civil Service Commission. Written reprimands may be grieved, but are not subject to arbitration.

Article 13 - Grievance and Arbitration Procedure

Section 13.1

A grievance is an allegation, submitted as herein specified, claiming violation(s) of the express terms of this contract. Should any dispute or difference arise between the City of Wyoming and the Union concerning the interpretation and/or application of, compliance with any provision of this Agreement, such grievance shall be processed in the following manner.

Section 13.2

It is understood at any level of the grievance procedure that Management and Union are entitled to an equal number of representatives.

- Step 1. When an employee feels that he has a grievance he shall discuss it with his immediate Supervisor, within five (5) working days of the time which the employee should have become aware of the incident precipitating the grievance. If the immediate Supervisor is the subject of the grievance, the grievant may begin this procedure at Step 2 of the process. The Supervisor shall attempt to adjust the grievance, and give the employee an answer within five (5) working days. If this answer fails to satisfactorily settle the grievance, the employee accompanied by his FOP representative may present the grievance to Step 2 of this procedure within five (5) working days.

- Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 1, the employee or the FOP may within five (5) working days after receipt of the Step 1 answer appeal the grievance to the Chief of Police or his second in command. The grievance shall be reduced to writing on a grievance form setting forth the details of the grievance, i.e., the facts upon which the grievance is based, the provisions of the contract claimed to be violated, and the relief or remedy requested. The Chief of Police or his second in command shall meet with the employee, his FOP representative and/or the Staff representative within two (2) working days and shall render his decision in writing to the employee and the FOP representative within five (5) working days.
- Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled at Step 2 the employee, his FOP representative and/or the Staff representatives may, within five (5) working days after receipt of the Step 2 answer appeal the grievance to the City Manager. The City Manager shall meet with the employee, his FOP representative and/or the Staff representative within five (5) working days from the date of the request and shall render a decision in writing to the employee, the FOP representative and/or the Staff representative within three (3) working days after the Step 3 meeting. If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled, the employee accompanied by his FOP representative may appeal his grievance to arbitration within twenty (20) calendar days. Employer grievances, should they occur as a result of official Union activities or actions, including the failure to act as required under this Agreement, will be presented directly to the Staff representative within ten (10) days of the occurrence prompting the grievance, or within ten (10) days of the date upon which the Employer became aware of the situation prompting the grievance. The Staff representative, or his designee shall in each case provide a written answer within fifteen (15) days from receipt of grievance. Unresolved employer grievances may be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Step 4 herein.
- Step 4. In grievances that are posted for arbitration, the charging party shall within twenty (20) calendar days of the Step 3 answer submit the matter to arbitration. The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS) shall be contacted for a list of arbitrators. The arbitrators requested from FMCS must be members of the National Academy of Arbitrators.

- A. The FOP and the City shall move to select an arbitrator in an expedient manner once FMCS transmits the panel of arbitrators, unless it is agreed in writing that the selection of an arbitrator may be delayed. The FOP shall first strike a name. Thereafter, each side shall alternately strike a name from the list until one remains. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the City and the FOP. Furthermore, the aggrieved employee, his FOP representative, and any necessary witnesses shall not lose any regular straight time pay for time off the job while attending arbitration proceedings.
- B. In the event a grievance goes to arbitration, the arbitrator shall have no authority to add to or subtract from or modify in any way any of the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall issue a decision within thirty (30) days after submission of the case to him (unless otherwise agreed to by the parties).
- C. All decisions of arbitrators and all pre-arbitration grievance settlements reached by the FOP and the City shall be final, conclusive and binding on the City, the FOP and the employees. A grievance may be withdrawn by the filing party at any time during the Grievance Procedure, and the withdrawal of any grievance shall not be prejudicial to the positions taken by the parties as they related to that grievance or any other grievances.

Section 13.3

The time limits or steps set forth in this grievance procedure may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties in writing. Unless such time restrictions are waived, they shall be strictly applied. The burden of complying with the time restrictions falls upon the employee pursuing the grievance. A failure by the employee to comply with the time limits set forth in this procedure shall result in the termination of the grievance. A failure on the part of any superior, department head, City Manager, or his representative, to respond within the time limits set forth in this Agreement shall be deemed to be equivalent to a written denial of the grievance. A policy grievance which affects a number of employees may be initially presented by the union at Step 2 or Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure.

Section 13.4

A failure of probation and conclusions made in performance evaluations are not subject to the Grievance Procedure.

Article 14 - Corrective Action and Records

Section 14.1

Article 19 - Sick Leave

Section 19.1 Entitlement

Each full-time, permanent employee is credited with ten (10) hours of sick leave per calendar month of service, to a maximum of 120 hours per year. Sick leave credit may be accumulated to a maximum of 2,500 hours. Upon retirement, or in the event of an employee's death, each employee shall receive pay for a maximum of two thirds (2/3) of his/her unused accumulated sick leave; provided, however, that no more than 1,072 hours may be paid regardless of the accumulated sick leave amount.

Section 19.2 Notification

Sick leave will be paid only when the employee or a member of his immediate family notifies his superior or other designated person of his absence at least one-half (1/2) hour prior to the time he or she would normally report for duty. In the event of absence of more than three (3) days, the employee may be required to file with the Chief or his designee a written statement signed by a qualified doctor stating that the employee is able to return to work. The City may require satisfactory medical evidence when patterns of use suggest abuse. More than five (5) instances of absence in any six (6) month period may be deemed excessive, and in such an event the City Manager shall investigate and take disciplinary action if he deems it necessary.

In no event will an employee on sick leave be paid for more than eight (8) hours in any twenty-four (24) hour period, unless his normal work period is more than eight (8) hours in which case he shall be paid for the actual number of hours he would have worked.

Section 19.3 Family Illness

An employee may be granted up to three (3) days sick leave at the discretion of the City Manager, in the event of serious sickness or disability in his immediate family.

"Immediate family" means father, mother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, sister, brother, wife, husband, child or step child of the employee.

"Family" means grandfather, grandmother, father, mother, sister, brother, wife, husband, child, step child or step parent of the employee, and father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law of the employee.

Section 19.5 Extensions

The City Manager may at his discretion grant sick leave in addition to the provisions regarding use of sick leave for a serious sickness or disability in an employee's immediate family or in the event of death in the family of an employee.

Section 19.6 Pregnancy

Pregnancy is regarded as a short-term disability. As such, employees are permitted to use sick or annual leave which they have available to them, after which they may be placed on a leave without pay status.

A pregnant employee may continue to work in her position as long as she can carry out the duties of the job. An employee wishing to go on maternity leave prior to the 7th month of her pregnancy must present evidence from the attending physician verifying medical complications requiring the employee to stay home.

If an employee is not sure whether she wishes to return to her position after the pregnancy, the position will be held open for a period of six (6) weeks. If the employee has not returned to her position after six (6) weeks, the position will be considered vacated, and may be refilled utilizing normal procedures. If the employee is utilizing Family and Medical Leave as defined in Section 19.8, her job shall be held open for the duration of said Family and Medical Leave.

In the event of postpartum complications, the City Manager may, at his discretion, extend the period during which the position will be kept open; only, upon presentation of written notification from the attending physician indicating such complication, and the expected date when the employee will be able to return to work.

Section 19.7 Conversion

An employee who has more than six hundred (600) hours sick leave accumulated to his credit as of December 31st of the previous year may convert the excess to vacation on the basis of twenty four (24) hours sick leave to sixteen (16) hours vacation leave, to a maximum of thirty-two (32) hours vacation leave in any given year, if the conversion is to then be taken in cash, providing the employee's sick leave balance after conversion is not less than six hundred (600) hours. Injury leave may not be used under these circumstances.

Any physician's release to Transitional Work must include an estimated date for return to regular duties. Transitional Work will be limited to the Police Department.

Section 20.4

In determining an employee's eligibility for leave, or mental or physical ability to perform or return to regular or transitional work, under this Article or under any provision of this Agreement, the City may rely upon medical evidence presented by the employee or may require the employee to submit to an examination by a physician or other examiner selected and paid for by the City. If an employee does not agree with the results of the City's examination, the employee may appeal to a third physician agreed upon by the City's physician and the employee's physician. The third physician's opinion shall be binding on the City, the employee and the Union and the examination cost shall be paid by the City.

Section 20.5

By accepting injury leave benefits as described in this Article, the injured employee does not surrender any claims to compensation he or she may be entitled to under B.W.C. for the period when injury leave is not being paid under the injury leave benefit.
