Section 1. Duly elected or appointed delegates to conventions, conferences, or seminars of the Union who are in the bargaining unit shall be granted time off without pay for the purpose of participating in such activities. 180 calendar days. A probationary employee may be terminated during his probationary period and shall have no appeal over such removal.

ARTICLE 6

Section 1. The Employer agrees to deduct Union membership dues, fees, and assessments in accordance with this Article for all employees eligible for membership in the bargaining unit.

Section 2. The Employer agrees to deduct regular Union membership dues once each month from the pay of any employee in the bargaining unit eligible for such deduction upon receiving written authorization signed individually and voluntarily by the employee. Newly hired employees shall be eligible for dues deduction after thirty (30) days of service with the Employer. The signed payroll deduction form must be presented to the Employer by the employee or the Union. Upon receipt of the proper authorization, the Employer will deduct Union dues from the next pay period in which dues are normally deducted following the pay period in which the authorization was received by the Employer.

Section 3. The parties agree that the Employer assumes no obligation, financial or otherwise, arising out of the provisions of this Article regarding the deduction of Union dues, fees, and assessments. The Union hereby agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any and all claims, demands, actions, or other forms of liability arising from deductions made by the Employer pursuant to this Article or in reliance on any list, notices or assignment furnished under any such provisions. Once the funds are remitted to the Union, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the Union.

Section 4. The Employer shall be relieved from making such individual "check-off" deductions upon an employee's: (1) termination of employment; (2) transfer to a job other than one covered by the bargaining unit; (3) layoff from work; (4) an unpaid leave of absence; (5) written revocation of the check-off authorization.

Section 5. The Employer shall not be obligated to make dues deductions from any employee who, during any pay period involved, shall have failed to receive sufficient wages to make all legally required deductions in addition to the deduction of Union dues.

Section 6. The parties agree that neither the employees nor the Union shall have a claim against the Employer for errors in the processing of deductions, unless a claim of error is made to the Employer in writing within sixty (60) days after the date such an error is claimed to have occurred. If it is found an error was made, it will be corrected at the next pay period that the Union dues deduction would normally be made by deducting the proper amount.

Section 7. The rate at which dues are to be deducted shall be certified to the Employer by the International Treasurer of the Union during January of each year. A one (1) month advance notice must be given the Employer prior to making any changes in an individual's dues deductions. The Employer shall remit the aggregate of Union dues deductions and a list of employees from whom dues have been deducted to the Treasurer of the Union.

ARTICLE 7

Fair Share Fee

Section 1. All employees on the effective date of this Agreement, who do not become members of the Union after sixty (60) days following the beginning of their employment with the Employer, shall be required as a condition of continued employment to pay to the Union a fair share fee.

Other provisions of this Agreement notwithstanding, employees hired prior to the effective date of the Agreement shall be subject to the fair share fee obligation. Employees who are members of the Union on the effective date of this Agreement and subsequently resign from the Union shall be subject to the fair share fee obligation.

Section 2. The fair share fee shall be established to cover the employee's pro rata share of: (1) the direct cost incurred by the Union in negotiating and administering this Agreement and of settling grievances and disputes arising under this Agreement; and (2) the Union's expenses incurred for activities normally and reasonably employed to effectuate its duties as the exclusive representative of the employees in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement. The fair share fee shall not be used to finance political and/or ideological activity. Fair share fees shall be deducted and remitted during the same period as dues; provided the employee has received sufficient wages during the applicable pay period to equal the deduction.

Section 3. Prior to the effective date of this Agreement, and on the anniversary date of each succeeding year for the term of this Agreement, the Union shall certify to the Employer and to each employee the proportionate amount of its total dues and fair share fees that were spent on activities that could not be charged to the fees of non-members during the preceding year. This certification must explain the various categories of expenses with specificity. The amount of the fair share fee required to be paid by each non-member employee in the unit during the succeeding year shall be the amount of the regular dues paid by employees in the unit who are members of the Union, less each non-member's proportionate share of the amount of the Union's dues and fees spent on activities not chargeable to such fees in the prior year. The Employer shall not be obligated to implement the fair share deductions under this section until:

A. The Union has prescribed a reasonably prompt rebate and challenge procedure which complies with ORC Section 4117.09 (C) and federal law (pursuant to Hudson vs. Chicago Teachers Local 1, 106 S. Ct. 1066 (1986)).

B The Union has provided all potential objectors with the notice of the fair share amount, the basis for determination, and the right to challenge the determination before an impartial decision-maker.

C. The Union has notified all potential objectors of their right to file with SERB a conscientious objection because of religious beliefs.

Section 4. It is specifically agreed that the Employer assumes no obligation, financial or otherwise, arising out of the provisions of this Article, and the Union hereby agrees that it will indemnify, defend and hold the Employer harmless from any claims, actions or proceedings by any employee arising from deductions made by the Employer thereunder. Further, the Union shall indemnify, defend and hold the Employer harmless against any form of liability arising out of or by reason of action taken or not taken by the Employer for purposes of complying with any of the provisions of this Article or in reliance on any list, notice or assignment furnished under any such provisions. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to obtain appropriate refund from the Union. Once the funds are remitted to the Union, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the Union.

ARTICLE 8

Management Rights

Section 1. The Union recognizes those rights that are established as management rights enumerated as follows:

5. Suspend, discipline, demote or discharge for just cause; or layoff, transfer, assign, schedule, promote or retain employees;
6. Determine the adequacy of the workforce;
7. Determine the overall mission of the Employer as a unit of government;
8. Effectively manage the workforce; and,
9. Take action to carry out the mission of the public employer as a governmental unit.

Section 2. The Employer is not required to bargain on subjects reserved to the management and direction of the governmental unit, except as they affect wages, hours, terms and other conditions of employment, and the continuation, modification or deletion of any existing provision of a collective bargaining agreement. A public employee or exclusive representative may raise a legitimate complaint or file a grievance based on the collective bargaining agreement.

ARTICLE 9
Corrective Action

Section 1. No employee shall be reduced in pay or position, suspended or removed except for just cause. Further, no form of disciplinary action will be taken against any employee except for just cause.

- A. Discipline will be applied in a corrective, progressive and uniform manner.
- B. Progressive discipline shall take into account the nature of the violation, the employee's record of discipline and the employee's record of performance and conduct.
- C. Whenever the Employer and/or his designee determines there may be cause for an employee to be disciplined (suspended, reduced or discharged) a pre-disciplinary conference will be scheduled to give the employee the opportunity to offer an explanation of the alleged conduct. The pre-disciplinary conference procedures shall be as follows:
 - 1. The employee shall be provided with a written notice advising him of the nature of the charges and the date, time, and location of the hearing. Such notice shall be given to the employee at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time of the hearing. The employee shall be allowed representation, the cost of which shall be borne by the employee.
 - 2. The hearing shall be conducted before a "neutral" administrator, selected by the Employer, who is not involved in any of the events giving rise to the offense.
 - 3. Within five (5) calendar days after the hearing, the administrator shall provide the employee a written statement affirming or disaffirming the charges based on the relative strength of the evidence at the hearing by the employee and the Employer.

The affected employee(s) may elect to have a representative of the union present at any such pre-disciplinary conference.

Section 3. Following the conference, any employee receiving an order of suspension or dismissal may appeal such order at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within five (5) working days of receipt of the decision.

Section 4. Prior to the scheduled time of the conference the employee may waive his/her right to such a conference, by signing the "Waiver of Pre-Disciplinary Conference" form (Appendix " "). An employee who waives their right to such a conference may not grieve the imposition of discipline in the matter in which the conference was scheduled.

Section 5. The Employer agrees all disciplinary procedures shall be carried out in private and in a business like manner.

Section 6. Records of disciplinary action shall cease to have force and effect or be considered in future discipline matters under the following time frames:

Oral and written reprimands	6 months
Suspensions of less than 3 days	12 months
Suspensions of 3 days or more	24 months

providing there is no intervening disciplinary actions taken during that period, for similar and like offenses.

Section 7. An employee may inspect his personnel file as set forth in this Agreement, under Article 11, Personnel Files. During said inspection, while in the presence of the Employer or his designee, employees may remove documents that cease to have force and effect at the conclusions of the time periods established in Section 6 above.

Section 8. Should an employee dispute any of the contents of their personnel file, he may attach a written rebuttal to the disputed item for inclusion into the file.

Section 9. No internal non-criminal investigation, which may involve disciplinary action, such as written reprimands, suspensions or discharge, shall be conducted without first obtaining a fully completed and signed complaint form. Since internal investigations may be undertaken to inquire into the complaints of misconduct by employees, the Employer reserves the right to conduct such investigation to uncover the facts in which case, while protecting the rights and dignity of the accused personnel.

Section 10. When an employee is to be interviewed or questioned or asked to make a statement concerning a complaint or allegation of misconduct (which if proven could result in disciplinary suspension, reduction or discharge of a bargaining unit member), the employee will be informed twenty-four (24) or more hours prior to the interview as to the nature of the investigation and whether the employee is the subject of the investigation or a witness. If the employee is the subject of the investigation, the employee shall be informed of each complaint or allegation is being made.

Section 11. The Employer will make reasonable efforts to conduct the interviews during an employee's regularly scheduled working hours. In any event, the employee will be in an on duty paid status for the duration of the interview.

Section 12. Prior to an interview or questioning of any employee or witness, the employee will be given the opportunity to arrange to have a union representative present during said period. The role of the employee's representative at such time will be to insure the rights of the employee are not abridged.

Section 13. An employee who is to be interviewed or questioned concerning his performance shall be informed he is part of an official or un-official investigation and if the employee may or may not be subjected to disciplinary action as a result thereof, and the employee shall be advised of all constitutional and legal rights that are applicable.

Section 14. A complete copy of any recording or transcripts of recordings shall be made available to the other party, at no cost, within three (3) working days of the date of the interview or questioning.

Section 15. When no disciplinary action is to be taken as a result of the investigation the employee shall be so advised within five (5) working days of the end of the investigation.

Section 16. Disciplinary action shall be instituted within ten (10) working days of the end of the investigation or within ten (10) working days of the end of the pre-disciplinary conference, whichever is later.

ARTICLE 10

Grievance Procedure

Section 1. The term "grievance" shall mean an allegation by a bargaining unit employee that there has been a breach, misinterpretation or improper application of this Agreement. It is not intended that the grievance procedure be not used to effect changes in the Articles of this Agreement, nor those matters not covered by this Agreement.

Section 2. A. All grievances must be processed at the proper step in order to be considered at subsequent steps.

B. Any employee may withdraw a grievance at any point by submitting in writing a statement to that effect or by permitting the time requirements at each step to lapse without further appeal. Any grievance which is not processed by the employee within the time limits provided shall be considered resolved based upon management's last answer.

C. Any grievance not answered by management within the stipulated time limits may be advanced by the employee to the next step in the grievance procedure. All time limits on grievances may be extended by mutual consent of the parties.

D. A grievance may be brought by any bargaining unit member who believes himself to be aggrieved. When a group of bargaining unit members desire to file a grievance involving an alleged violation which affects more than one member in the same way, the grievance may be filed by the Union. Class Action Grievances shall be filed within fifteen (15) days of the date on which the event that generated the grievance took place, or within fifteen (15) days of the time in which the members became aware of such proceeding. A Class Action Grievance shall be filed directly into the second (2nd) step of the grievance procedure.

Section 3. All grievances must contain the following information to be considered and must be filed using the grievance form listed herein.

1. The aggrieved employee's name and signature
2. The aggrieved employee's classification
3. Date the grievance was first discussed and the name of the supervisor with whom the grievance was discussed
4. Date the grievance was filed in writing
5. Date and time grievance occurred
6. The location where the grievance occurred
7. A description of the incident given rise to the grievance
8. Specific articles and sections of the Agreement violated
9. Desired remedy to resolve the grievance

Section 4. It is the mutual desire of the Employer and the Union to provide for prompt adjustments of grievances, with a minimum amount to interruption of the work schedule. Every responsible effort shall be made by the Employer and the Union to effect resolution of grievances at the earliest step possible. In furtherance of this objective, the following procedure shall be followed:

INFORMAL STEP - Immediate Supervisor

An employee having a grievance will first bring that complaint verbally, within fifteen (15) calendar days of the incident giving rise to the grievance, or within fifteen (15) calendar days of his first knowledge of the action or event, (not to exceed thirty (30) days from the date of the action or event), to the attention of the employee's immediate supervisor. The immediate supervisor, or his designee, shall within three (3) calendar days discuss the grievance with the employee and within twenty-four (24) hours of their discussion, respond to the employee with an answer.

Step 1 - Division Commander

If the employee and the immediate supervisor are unable to resolve the problem at the Informal Step, the employee may file a written grievance with the Division Commander. In order for the grievance to be recognized, it must be filed within fifteen (15) calendar days from the date of the Immediate Supervisor's response in the Informal Step. Within five (5) calendar days from the date the aggrieved first presented his complaint, the Division Commander will attempt to resolve the matter.

STEP 2 - Sheriff

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, the aggrieved, with the appropriate Staff Representative, if the former desires, may refer the grievance to the Sheriff, or his designee, within fifteen (15) calendar days after receiving the Step 1 reply. The Sheriff shall have five (5) calendar days in which to schedule a meeting with the aggrieved employee and his union representative, if the former desires. The Sheriff shall investigate and respond in writing to the grievant and/or the appropriate union representative within ten (10) calendar days following the meeting.

Step 3 - Arbitration

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled in Step 2, the Union may make a written request that the grievance is submitted to arbitration. A request for arbitration must be submitted within fifteen (15) calendar days following the date the grievance was answered in Step 2 of the grievance procedure. In the event the grievance is not referred to arbitration within the time limits prescribed, the grievance shall be considered resolved based upon the second step reply.

Section 5.

A. Upon receipt of a request for arbitration the Employer, or his designee, and the representative of the Union shall within ten (10) calendar days following the notice for arbitration, jointly agree to request a list of seven (7) impartial arbitrators from the Federal mediation and Conciliation Service. The parties shall agree on a submission agreement outlining the specific issues to be determined by the Arbitrator, but this shall not remove the ability to proceed if the parties do not agree on submission. Upon receipt of the list of seven (7) arbitrators, the parties shall meet to select an arbitrator within ten (10) calendar days from the date the list is received. The parties shall use the alternate strike method from the list of seven (7) arbitrators submitted by FMCS. The party requesting the arbitration shall be the first to strike a name from the list, and then the other party shall strike a name and alternate in this manner until one name remains on the list. The remaining name shall be designated as the arbitrator to hear the dispute in question. All procedures relative to the hearing shall be in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Federal Medication and Conciliation Service.

B. The arbitrator shall hold the arbitration promptly and issue his decision within a reasonable time thereafter. The arbitrator shall limit his decision strictly to the interpretation, application or enforcement of those specific articles and/or sections of this Agreement in question. The arbitrator's decision shall be consistent with applicable law. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, subtract from, modify, change or alter any provisions of this Agreement, nor add to, subtract from, modify the language therein in arriving at his determination on any issue presented that is proper within the limitations expressed herein. The arbitrator shall expressly confine himself to the precise issue submitted for arbitration and shall have no authority to determine any other issue not so submitted to him, or to submit observations or declarations of opinion which are not directly essential in reaching a decision on the issue in question.

C. The arbitrator shall be without authority to recommend any right or relief on an alleged grievance occurring at any time other than the contract period in which such right originated or to make any award based on rights arising under any previous Agreement, grievance or practice. The arbitrator shall not establish any new or different wage rates not negotiated as part of this Agreement. In cases of discharge or of suspension, the arbitrator shall have the authority to recommend modification of said discipline. In the event of a monetary award, the arbitrator shall limit any retroactive settlement to the date the grievance was presented to the Employer in Step 1 of the grievance procedure.

D. The question of arbitrability of a grievance may be raised by either party before the arbitration hearing of the grievance, on the grounds that the matter is non-arbitrable or beyond the arbitrator's jurisdiction. The first question to be placed before the arbitrator will be whether or not the alleged grievance is arbitrable. If the arbitrator determines that the grievance is within the purview of arbitrability, the alleged grievance shall be heard on its merit before the same arbitrator.

E. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Union, the employee, and the Employer. Any cost involved in obtaining the list of arbitrators shall be equally divided between the Employer and the Union. All costs directly related to the services of the arbitrator shall be paid by the losing party. Expenses of the witnesses shall be borne, if any, by the party calling the witness. The fees of the court reporter shall be paid by the party asking for one; such fees shall be split equally if both parties desire a court reporter's recording, or request a copy of any transcript.

Section 6. Any grievance that originates from a level above the first step of the grievance procedure may be submitted directly to the step or level from which it originates.

Section 7. For purposes of this Article, workdays shall be defined as calendar days, excluding Saturday, Sunday and holidays as defined herein.

Section 8. In the event a step in the grievance procedure is permanently vacant, grievances presented to the vacant step will proceed to the next step, without any loss of time, to be answered by the supervisor next in the grievance procedure.

Section 9. The Employer shall provide the Union with a list of Management's designated representatives for each step of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 11

Personnel Files

Section 1. It is recognized by the parties that the Employer may establish regulations for the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, books, documents, and property pertaining to the Employer or his employees. All employees shall have access to their own individual personnel file for review of documents contained in said personnel file. Employees shall have access to their individual personnel file for review in the following manner:

1. Requests for review must be made in writing to and receive approval from the Employer or his designee.
2. All reviews shall be conducted on the premise of the Employer.
3. All reviews shall be conducted during the Employer's normal business hours.
4. All employee reviews should be on the employee's non-work time.
5. An employee may provide written authorization for an individual, other than said employee, to be granted permission to review said employee's file in accordance with this Article.
6. Any non-employee of the Employer, reviewing a personnel file must sign the jacket of the file giving the individual's name, date, and time of review, and duration of review.

7. Requests for copies of documentation in said files will be made following the Employer's practice of copying documents.

Section 2. Employee personnel files shall include but may not be limited to individual employment date, payroll information, work time schedules, records of additions or deductions paid, application forms, records pertaining to hiring, promotion, demotion, transfer, layoff, and termination.

Section 3. Unless otherwise provided by law, personnel files and information shall be confidential and may not be used or divulged for purposes not connected with the Ashtabula County Sheriff's Department, except with the written consent of the employee affected.

Section 4. If a bargaining unit member has reason to believe there are inaccuracies in documents contained in the personnel file, the employee may write a memorandum or letter explaining his position, and have the letter or memo attached to the documents in question.

Section 5. Nothing herein shall prevent the dissemination of impersonal statistical information.

ARTICLE 12

No Strike/No Lockout

Section 1. The Employer and the OPBA recognize that a strike would create a clear and present danger to the health and safety of the public, and that the Agreement provides machinery for the orderly resolution of grievances. The parties, therefore, agree to the following:

During the term of this Agreement, the OPBA shall not authorize, cause, engage in, sanction or assist in any sick call, work stoppage, strike, sympathy strike, or slowdown which affects the Employer or his operations. Should any employee(s) engage in a sick call, work stoppage, strike, sympathy strike, or slowdown, the OPBA will promptly do whatever it can to prevent or stop unauthorized acts, including stating in writing to the employee(s) the strike action is not authorized by the OPBA and all employees should return to work immediately. The Employer shall hold the OPBA harmless, provided the OPBA follow the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 2. In addition to any other remedies available to the Employer, any employee or employees, either individually or collectively, who violate Section 1 of this Article is subject to discipline or discharge by the Employer. Disciplinary action taken in accordance with the provisions of this Article shall be subject to the grievance procedure contained herein.

Section 3. During the term of this Agreement, the Employer shall not cause, permit or engage in any lockout of its employees unless those employees have violated Section 1 of this Article.

Section 4. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to limit or abridge the Employer's right to seek other available remedies provided by law to deal with any unauthorized or unlawful strike, provided the Employer follows all the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 13

Non-Discrimination

Section 1. Neither the Employer nor the Union shall discriminate against any bargaining unit employee on the basis of age, sex, race, color, creed, handicap or national origin. The Union shall share equally with the Employer the responsibility for applying this provision of the Agreement.

Section 2. All references to employees in this Agreement designate both sexes, and whenever the male gender is used, it shall be construed to include male and female employees.

Section 3. The Employer and Union agree not to discriminate against any bargaining unit employee on the basis of membership, non-membership or position in the Union.

ARTICLE 14

Health and Safety

Section 1.

A. Safety must be a prime concern and responsibility of both parties. Therefore, the Employer accepts the responsibility to attempt to provide safe working conditions, and establish safe working practices for his employees.
