Step 1. An employee wishing to file a grievance, must present the grievance through his Union Representative in writing to the immediate supervisor, stating the section of the agreement which he claims to be violated, specifying the remedy sought and countersigned by the union steward. The immediate supervisor shall reply to the grievance in writing within ten (10) calendar days after the grievance is submitted to him.

Step 2. If an employee does not agree with the response or does not receive a reply to his written grievance within ten (10) calendar days, his grievance, through his Union Representative, may be taken to Step 2 of the Grievance Procedure. A Step 2 grievance must be filed with the next level of supervision within ten (10) calendar days after the employee receives his reply or should have received his reply. The next level supervisor will investigate, make inquiries and may schedule a meeting with the Union Representative to be held in ten (10) calendar days after the Manager has received the grievance. The next level supervisor will provide a written reply within ten (10) calendar days after the scheduled meeting.

Step 3. If the employee does not receive a satisfactory reply to his written grievance within ten (10) calendar days, or the employee receives no reply to his written grievance at the end of the ten (10) calendar days, his grievance, through his Union Representative, may be presented to the Department Director at Step 3 of the Grievance Procedure within ten (10) calendar days after the date of the reply was or should have been received. The Department Director, or his designee shall schedule a meeting with a representative of the Union to be held within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance. The Department Director will provide a written reply within ten (10) calendar days after the meeting is held.

Step 4. The County Administrator or his designee shall schedule a meeting with a representative of the Union to be held within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the grievance. The County Administrator will provide a written reply within ten (10) calendar days after the meeting is held.

Step 5. Any grievance that remains unresolved after Step 4 may be submitted to grievance mediation by either party. If a grievance proceeds to mediation, the procedures set forth in Step 6 shall be stayed until the mediation process is completed.

The parties agree to use a Mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Services or the State Employment Relations Board. The Mediator may not serve as an arbitrator for the same issue for which he or she is the Mediator.

The grievant shall have the right to be present at the mediation conference. The County and the Union may each have no more than three (3) additional representatives as participants in the mediation effort. Persons representing the parties shall be vested with full authority to resolve the issues being considered.

Mediation efforts will be informal in nature and shall not include written opinions or recommendations from the Mediator unless mutually agreed to by the parties and the Mediator. In the event that a grievance which has been mediated is appealed to arbitration, there shall be no reference in the arbitration proceeding to the fact that a mediation conference was or was not held.

If a settlement is not reached, the Union may appeal the grievance to arbitration. All applicable time limits for appealing a grievance to arbitration contained in the Collective Bargaining Agreement shall commence on the day of the mediation conference.

The dates, times and places of mediation conferences will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties. Each party shall designate a representative responsible for scheduling mediation conferences. Fees and expenses for grievance mediation shall be shared equally by the parties.

Step 6. a) If the grievance is not settled in accordance with the foregoing procedure, the Union may refer the grievance to arbitration. The Union must make written application to the Employer for arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the Director's Step 3 answer. The parties shall jointly request the American Arbitration Association or the Federal Mediation Conciliation Service to submit a panel of arbitrators within thirty (30) calendar days of the Union's appeal to arbitration. The party invoking arbitration shall strike the first name, the other party shall then strike one name, the process shall be repeated and the remaining person shall be the arbitrator. Both parties may reject one (1) entire panel. The arbitrator shall be notified of his selection by a joint letter from the Employer and Union requesting that he set a time and date, subject to the availability of the Department and Union representatives. All arbitration hearings shall be held in Xenia, Ohio (unless the parties mutually agree otherwise).

b) The arbitrator shall have no right to recommend to amend, amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement. He shall only consider and make a decision with respect to the specific issue submitted, and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted to him. The arbitrator shall be without power to make a decision contrary to or inconsistent with or modifying or varying in any way the application of state or local laws. The arbitrator shall submit in writing his decision within thirty (30) calendar days following close of the hearing or the submission of briefs by the parties, whichever is later, unless the parties agree to a written extension thereof. The decision shall be based solely upon his interpretation of the meaning or application of the express terms of this Agreement to the facts of the grievance presented. A decision rendered consistent with the terms of this Agreement shall be final and binding.

c) The fee and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the County and the Union provided, however, that each party shall be responsible for purchasing its own copy of the written transcript.

13.4. Union Representation. During the Grievance Procedure, the employee may have his Union steward present, or any other personal representative.

time limit or any agreed extension thereof, it shall be considered settled on the basis of the Employer's last answer. If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that Step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next Step.

13.8. Consolidation of Grievances. Two or more grievances may not be joined or consolidated for hearing by an arbitrator except upon mutual agreement of both parties.

13.9. Witnesses. Both the employee and the Employer shall have the right to present witnesses as are necessary for the explanation and investigation of the grievance. The employee shall give twenty-four (24) hours advance notice to the Employer of the name(s) of any witness(es) requested before the applicable Step of the Grievance Procedure. much as is practicable, the Employer will limit such temporary assignments to thirty (30) calendar days, except in cases of vacancies resulting from approved leave or where the Section 1 procedure is in process.

An employee selected for a promotional position will be given the necessary time and training to become accustomed to the job or to learn the normal operations of the position during a one-hundred twenty (120) day probationary period, however, this probationary period may be extended upon mutual consent of the parties.
