PREAMBLE

This Agreement entered into between the Lake County Commissioners and the Sheriff of Lake County, Ohio (hereinafter referred to as Sheriff, Management, or Employer) and the Ohio Patrolmen's Benevolent Association (hereinafter referred to as the OPBA or Union).

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION AND PURPOSE

Section 1.

The Lake County Sheriff and the Lake County Commissioners hereby recognizes the OPBA as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all full-time Non-Deputized Dispatcher Sergeants, and Non-Deputized Dispatcher Lieutenants. The Union, as a term and condition of this agreement, has provided the Employer a notarized affidavit certifying compliance with the Ohio Revised Code Section 3517.13.

Section 2.

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore, the Employer and the Union, for the duration of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waives the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to, or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to, or covered in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Section 1.

It is a condition of this Agreement, agreed to by both parties, to provide equal opportunity to all employees and to prohibit any discrimination because of race, creed, sex, marital status, national origin, age, handicap or political affiliation.

Section 2.

Nothing in this contract shall provide, however, any additional rights, privileges, recourse or remedy other than those already provided by state and federal laws.

ARTICLE 3

NO STRIKE/NO LOCK OUT

Section 1.

The Union agrees for itself and its members that neither it nor they will directly or indirectly call for, instigate, sanction or encourage a strike or any concerted work stoppage or other job action designed to impair or impede the functions of the Lake County Sheriff's Office or any part thereof.

Section 2.

The Union agrees to actively seek stoppage of any type of job action by a member or members of the Ohio Patrolmen's Benevolent Association and shall take whatever affirmative steps reasonably within their ability that are necessary to end such job action.

Section 3.

The County of Lake, Ohio and the Sheriff agree not to lock out any employee in the Union during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 4

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 1.

Not by way of limitation of the following paragraph, but to only indicate the type of matters or rights which belong to and are inherent to the Employer, the Employer through its appropriate agent retains the right to:

1. Hire, promote and transfer employees;
2. Discipline, suspend and discharge employees for just cause;
3. Determine the number of persons required to be employed, laid off or discharged;
4. Determine the qualifications of employees covered by this Agreement;

Section 2.

In addition, the Union agrees that all of the functions, rights, powers, responsibilities and authority of the Employer in regard to the operation of its work and business and the direction of its work force which the Employer through its appropriate agent has not specifically abridged, deleted, granted or modified by the express and specific written provisions of this Agreement are and shall remain, exclusively those of the Employer. The Employer will notify the Union and affected employees fourteen (14) calendar days in advance of any layoff.

Section 2.

Once the number of layoffs and the respective positions, rank or classification have been determined by the Employer, affected employees shall be laid off based upon seniority with the least senior employee being laid off first, except that a ranking officer shall be laid off based upon time in grade used to determine initial seniority.

If a ranking officer upon receiving a notice of layoff wishes to bump down to a lower rank if his seniority allows, he shall give notice to the Employer within five (5) days of receipt of the notice of layoff.

The lower ranking officer affected will then receive notice of layoff within the original fourteen (14) days of the layoff notifications.

The Employer shall not be responsible for any calculation required to determine an amount of dues or accounting of insufficient dues of employees. Section 4.

Monies deducted pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall be remitted to the Union within thirty (30) days of their deduction.

The Employer shall remit said amount, along with a list of Bargaining Unit employees on County employment rolls and those employees for whom deductions were made, to the designated official representative of the Union on a monthly basis.

ARTICLE 10

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1.

A grievance is defined as an allegation that there is a complaint, dispute or other controversy of a specific article or section of this Agreement. The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement and specifically waives any right of appeal through the State of Ohio Personnel Board of Review except for a probationary employee set out in Article Six (6).

Both parties agree that all grievances should be dealt with promptly and every effort should be made to settle grievances as close to the source as possible.

Section 2.

Should the Administration fail to comply with the time limits herein, the Union may appeal to the next step.

Should the Union fail to comply with the time limits herein, the grievance shall be considered abandoned. All time limits may be extended by mutual consent.

Section 3.

The following procedures shall be utilized when a grievance is initiated by a member of a Bargaining Unit. Grievances shall be initiated by the respective Bargaining Unit affected.

STEP 1:

A grievance must be presented orally or in writing. At the choice of the aggrieved, to the Shift Supervisor or, in their absence, the Division Commander, within five (5) working days of the occurrence or within five (5) days after it has become known to the employee.

The Shift Supervisor or, in their absence, the Division Commander shall have five (5) days following such presentation to submit an oral response. The employee shall be accompanied by a Union representative, if so requested.

STEP 2:

If the grievance is not settled at the first step, the Union or the aggrieved will reduce the grievance to writing. The written grievance must be presented to the Chief Deputy within five (5) working days after receipt of the Step 1 answer. The Chief Deputy shall reply in writing within five (5) working days after receipt of the written grievance.

STEP 3:

If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the Union or aggrieved may appeal in writing to the Sheriff. Such appeal must be submitted within seven (7) working days after receipt of the Step 2 reply. The Sheriff shall meet within thirty (30) calendar days with the Union or the aggrieved to attempt to resolve the grievance. The Sheriff shall reply in writing within ten (10) working days following such meeting.

STEP 4:

If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3, the Union may, within ten (10) days after the decision of the Sheriff certify in writing to the other party its intent to submit the grievance for arbitration.

A member of the Bargaining Unit and his grievance representative shall be allowed time off from regular duties with pay for attendance at scheduled meetings under the grievance procedure with prior approval of their respective supervisors. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, and the withholding of such approval shall result in an automatic equivalent extension of time limits within which a grievant must appeal his grievance or have it heard.

ARBITRATION

SECTION 1.:

The Union shall request that the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service submit a list of seven (7) arbitrators, selected from a Sub-Regional pool, to both parties. The parties shall meet within five (5) working days of receipt of said list for the purpose of selecting the arbitrator by alternately striking names from the list until one name remains. A determination to decide the order of striking of the names shall be determined in the following manner: a coin shall be flipped. The party flipping the coin shall do so in a way that it goes into the air and is allowed to hit the floor. The party not flipping the coin shall call "heads" or "tails" while the coin is in mid air. If the person calling the coin gets the call he has made, he will have the choice as to the order used to strike names from the Mediator's list, i.e., whether they wish to strike the first and third names or the second and fourth names. If the party calling the flip does not win, the party flipping the coin shall have the right to decide whether he wishes to strike the first and third names or the second and fourth names.

SECTION 2.:

The arbitrator shall schedule a hearing within thirty (30) days at a time and place convenient to the parties.

SECTION 3.:

The arbitrator shall be expressly limited to the meaning, intent, or application of the provisions of this Agreement. He shall have no power to add to, detract from, or alter in any way, the provisions of this Agreement.

SECTION 4.:

The decision of the arbitrators shall be writing and final and binding on both parties.

SECTION 5.:

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator and the cost of the hearing room, if any, will be borne by the party losing the grievance. However, expenses relating to the calling of witnesses or obtaining of deposition or any other similar expenses associated with such proceedings shall be borne by the party at whose request such witnesses or deposition is required.

ARTICLE 11

REVIEW OF PERSONNEL FILES

Section 1.

Every member shall be allowed to review his personnel file at a reasonable time during regular office hours, upon the written request to the Sheriff, and in the presence of the Sheriff or his designated representative. The employee shall have the right to attach a letter of explanation with each item placed in his personnel file.

Employees shall receive a copy of any disciplinary action placed in their personnel file. Employees shall not refuse to sign, showing receipt, of any disciplinary action placed in their personnel file.

ARTICLE 12

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Section 1.

Disciplinary actions may be imposed upon an employee for just cause and may include any of the following. Normally, the Employer shall follow the tenants of progressive discipline except for infractions considered serious by the Employer.

1. Cautionary Warning
2. Written Reprimand
3. Suspension
4. Discharge

Other action such as reassignment, counseling, rehabilitation program, or other conditional requirements may be imposed based on the nature of event.

Normally, the Employer shall follow the tenants of progressive discipline except for infractions considered serious by the Employer. Progressive disciplinary actions shall not be categorized based on the nature of separate events.

Employees shall receive a copy of disciplinary actions and sign recognizing receipt.

Section 2.

In such events where the Employer intends to suspend an employee, a pre-disciplinary hearing shall be offered. The Employer shall give notice of the hearing which includes the nature of the charges and level of discipline intended.

The affected employee shall have the right of representation at any such pre-disciplinary hearing.

At such hearing, the Employer shall present the reasons for the intended action and offer an opportunity for the employee to respond.

Section 3.

A letter of rebuttal for any cautionary or written reprimand may be placed in the employee's personnel file, and is not subject to the grievance procedure, except that those incidents may be reviewed, if led to a suspension or greater action.

Only employees who are suspended or discharged by the Employer for just cause in accordance with this Article may appeal such disciplinary action through the grievance procedure set out in this Agreement. Such grievances shall be submitted directly to Step 3.

By agreement to process disciplinary appeals through the grievance procedure, Bargaining Unit employees waive any right of appeals through the State Personnel Board of Review, except for a new hire employee as set out in Probationary Period, Article 7.

Section 4.

Records of any verbal or written reprimands will cease to have force and effect or to be considered in future disciplinary measures one (1) year after the effective date of the reprimand, providing there are no intervening reprimands during the period.

Records of any suspension of three (3) days or less will cease to have force and effect or be considered in future disciplinary measures five (5) years after the effective date of the suspension, providing there are no intervening suspensions during the period.

Records of any suspension greater than three (3) days will cease to have force and effect or to be considered in future disciplinary measures seven (7) years after the effective date of the suspension, providing there are not intervening suspensions during the period.

No provision set out in this Section pertains to probationary employees or to the Employer's right to remove, reduce, or fail an employee in a probationary capacity.

ARTICLE 13

INTERNAL INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES

A Bargaining Unit member who is to be questioned as a suspect in any investigation which may result in his/her being charged under the criminal statutes of this or any other state or of the United States, shall be advised of his/her constitutional rights according to law. The members shall have the right to legal counsel and upon such a request, all questioning shall cease.

It shall be the duty of any employee who is the subject of any internal affairs investigation to cooperate fully with the Internal Affairs Unit.

Any employee who is contacted regarding any internal affairs investigation, whether or not he/she is the subject of the investigation, shall cooperate fully with the Internal Affairs Unit.

All employees requested to give any statement shall, when requested by an Internal Affairs Investigator, give a statement of facts concerning the incident being investigated. The request for the statement should be timed so that a complete rational answer can be given. This statement shall be either in inner-office form or a formal statement, at the discretion of the Internal Affairs Investigator.

The County cannot in the course of an investigation obtain evidence through the use of administrative pressure, threats, coercion, or promise. The County may require an employee to give a blood sample, urine sample, or breath sample to be used in an internal investigation process. The County may ask that the employee voluntarily submit to a polygraph examination to be used in the course of an internal investigation.

Some of these situations may lead to disciplinary action at which time the employee will be offered the normal time sequence and the availability of witnesses of his own choosing.

If the investigation reveals criminal activity and the employee has not waived his/her constitutional rights, the employee may be represented by counsel, either in the form of an attorney, an O.P.B.A. representative, or a witness of his/her own choice.

All investigations of an internal nature shall be instituted at the discretion and under the specific orders of the Sheriff with the investigation under the direct supervision of the Administrative Aide or other designated Hearing Officer.

When a single anonymous complaint is made against a member of the Bargaining Unit and there is no corroborative evidence of any kind, the Bargaining Unit member accused shall not be required to submit to interrogation or make a report. If the complaint is found to be invalid or progress is not possible due to the lack of evidence, then the complaint shall be deemed unfounded and all records or entries placed in an investigation file.

The parties herein agree that there shall be no press release by the County or the O.P.B.A. regarding the employee under investigation, the nature of the investigation, or the progress of the investigation, until the investigation is completed and the employee is either cleared or charged.

Any criminal penalties administered shall not be subject to the grievance procedure. All other discipline imposed in accordance with this Agreement shall be administered through the disciplinary process.

ARTICLE 14

A shift worker must report the reason for their absence three (3) hours prior to their scheduled starting time, except for unusual circumstances beyond their control.

Where sick leave is requested to care for members of the immediate family, the Supervisor may require a physician's certificate to the effect that the presence of the employee is necessary to care for the ill member.

If illness or disability continues past the time covered by earned sick leave, the employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay.

Section 3. - ABUSE OF SICK LEAVE

When the Employer has a reasonable belief that the employee is feigning illness or injury, they shall have the right to investigate during reasonable hours by visiting the employee's home. If the employee is not at home, he/she must be at a doctor's office or pharmacy or other excused location.

When the Employer can substantiate the abuse of sick time, either on an individual case or by virtue of a demonstration pattern, they shall have the right to challenge the use of this sick time under Abuse of Sick Time. Employees failing to comply with the sick leave rules and regulations shall not be paid. Applications for sick leave with intent to defraud shall be grounds for disciplinary action which may include dismissal.

In the event that any of the aforesaid holidays fall on Sunday, the Monday immediately succeeding shall be observed as the holiday, in accordance with Section 124.18 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Section 4.

The Employer shall grant three (3) personal days per year. New employees may be entitled to personal days on a pro-rata basis. The determination shall be based on the number of full four (4) month periods remaining in the calendar year an employee is hired.

Such personal days shall be scheduled in accordance with the established policy governing personal days.

Personal days shall not be accumulative, and shall be waived if not used within the calendar year they are earned.

In the year of terminating for any reason, the employee shall have been eligible for one (1) personal day for each full four-month period completed prior to termination. Such employee shall either be compensated for such eligible unused days or a deduction shall be made from an employee's final compensation for days utilized in excess of the allowance.

Section 5.

The Employer shall grant the use of two (2) sick days per contract year, to be used as employee's personal days. To be eligible for such use, an employee shall have an accrued bank at a level which does not fall below forty (40) hours when such time is scheduled to be taken.

Employees shall schedule not less than a full day increment and shall not be allowed to schedule days off in anticipation of earning sick time to meet required banked hours and shall not be scheduled in a manner that creates overtime.

Such personal days are not cumulative from year to year. Use of such personal days as granted here and above shall not be considered an occurrence for purposes of Article 14, Section 3.

Section 2.

Normally all new employees shall receive the entry rate of the classification they are hired for, and progress yearly to the next step of the wage scale.

If the Employer determines a new employee's skills and ability exceeds the entry level rates established, the Employer may place the employee at a step higher than entry level, but not above present Bargaining Unit employees.

Section 3.

In cases where an employee is promoted, the employee's step and hourly rate shall be set at the rate closest to their own with an increase of at least twenty-five cents ($.25) per hour. If below twenty-five cents ($.25) per hour, employee's step and rate shall be fixed at the next step if one exists.

In cases where an employee is demoted or is transferred to a classification whose top rate of the pay scale is less, the employee's step and hourly rate shall be set at the step equal to their present step at the applicable rate of the classification they are being assigned. (Except for a promotional probationary failure.)

Employees employed or transferred to or promoted this Unit after April 1st or on extended unpaid leaves during the period shall receive back pay in the same manner pro-rata to their respective date of hire, transfer, promotion or working time provided they continued to be employed upon the execution date for wages.

Section 5.

Effective March 29, 2015 and March 27, 2016, rates of compensation shall be established as set out in Appendix C.

ARTICLE 19

BEREAVEMENT DAYS

Section 1.

In the event of the death in the immediate family, a Bargaining Unit employee will be granted a four (4) day leave of absence with pay to be charged against his accumulated paid sick leave, or without pay if no accumulated sick leave is available. For such purpose, the immediate family shall be considered to be a father, mother, brother, sister, spouse, child, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, legal guardian, or a person who stands in a special filial relationship.

Section 3.

Employees attending the funeral of a said immediate family member, as set out in Section 1 above, when the funeral is more than one hundred fifty (150) miles from their home, shall be entitled to five (5) days of funeral/bereavement leave.

Section 4.

The above sections shall only apply when the relationship is through blood or consanguinity.

Section 5.

These days shall be recorded as bereavement day/excused absences and deducted from employee's sick leave.

ARTICLE 20

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 1.

The Employer shall grant an eligible employee up to twelve (12) weeks leave during a twelve (12) month period in accordance with provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act. Accrued paid vacation, compensatory, personal or sick leave (if medically required) time shall be utilized first and shall count towards the leave.

Paid Injury Leave utilized in an uncontested Workers' Compensation injury leave shall not count towards the twelve (12) week period. Employees in such instances shall be permitted to continue health insurance coverage by pre-paying the employee monthly premium co-pay for a period of three (3) months after all Injury Leave time is exhausted.

Section 2. - LENGTH OF LEAVE - MATERNITY

A pregnant employee will be granted a leave of absence without pay, subject to the provisions of this rule.

Leaves of absence shall be limited to the period of time that the pregnant employee is unable to perform the substantial and material duties of the employee's position. This period may include reasonable pre-delivery, delivery, and recovery time, as certified by a physician, not to exceed six (6) months including such time provided under the Family and Medical Leave Act. Failure by an employee to return to work as directed or at the conclusion of a pregnancy leave will be considered as having voluntarily resigned effective with the date they were to report to work.

Section 3. - PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATE

A pregnant employee requesting a leave of absence without pay must present, at the time the request is made, a physician's certificate stating the probable period for which the employee will be unable to perform the substantial and material duties of the employee's position due to pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

Section 4.

The Employer may grant a leave of absence without pay to an employee who is a party to a lawsuit to attend court proceedings.

Section 5. - FITNESS FOR DUTY

An employee found unfit for duty or unable to return to service after an extended medical leave as authorized by the Employer shall be removed from employment in a non-disciplinary manner.

Initiation of the process of removal may begin when the Employer reasonably believes that an ongoing condition renders an employee unfit for duty.

Such initial determination may be made based on the employee's physician's medical statement. At the Employer's expense an employee may be required to submit to a medical examination to determine fitness for duty.

If an employee disputes the findings of the Employer's examination they may, at their expense, submit to a medical examination by a physician of their choosing.

If the results of this examination are in contrast to the Employer's physician, a third physician or medical facility mutually recommended by each party's physician shall determine the employee's fitness for duty. The cost of this examination shall be shared equally by the Employer and the employee.

In cases where the condition allows use of sick leave, removal shall not occur prior to exhaustion of accrued sick leave or until accrued vacation, holiday, or compensatory time is exhausted.

ARTICLE 21

INJURY LEAVE

Section 1.

Effective January 1, 2006, in the event of an uncontested duty related injury resulting in loss of work by an employee, the Employer shall pay injury leave pay for the time lost at work for a period not to exceed sixty (60) work days (eight (8) hour equivalent) in one (1) calendar year. Compensation shall begin after seven (7) calendar days on the sixth (6th) consecutive shift of absence as certified by a physician.

Section 2.

A total of sixty (60) days of granted pay shall be on a one (1) time basis, per one (1) calendar year period. An employee initially using a portion of said leave, shall be entitled to use the remaining period of time available within the calendar year. In such cases, additional absences as certified by a physician, require the employee to be off for a period of five (5) consecutive work days, where they returned to work prior to exhausting such injury leave within the calendar year period.

Section 3.

No injury leave pay shall be paid at any time an employee is compensated by any other means by the Employer, including but not limited to, holidays, vacation, personal days, sick leave, bereavement, compensatory time, or compensation paid through Workers' Compensation or other time off program funded by the Employer.

Any paid time off, either pre-scheduled or naturally falling within the period an employee is off and being compensated injury leave pay, shall be charged to the appropriate designated account, such as vacation, holiday, sick leave, bereavement, etc.

There shall be no break in seniority during the period an employee is receiving injury leave pay. No sick time will be accrued for days compensated as injury leave pay.

Section 4.

The employee shall authorize the full release to the Employer of medical records and documents related to the incident or medical condition giving rise to the payment of injury leave pay.

The employee may be required to submit to an examination by a physician designated by the Employer to determine work related eligibility issues or continued disability. If a claim is disallowed for any reason, the employee shall be required to reimburse the Employer for any compensation received. In the event a claim is contested by the Employer, and subsequently allowed, injury leave shall be paid or re-credited to sick, vacation, or other accounts where such deductions were originally made.

Section 5.

An employee receiving injury leave pay or compensation through Workers'

Compensation, or similar program funded by the Employer, shall be required to work on a light duty or transitional assignment as determined by the Employer. Such assignment will be based on any limitations placed on an employee by the attending physician. Such assignments may be made anywhere within the Sheriff's organization.

Light duty or transitional assignments are temporary in nature. Both prognosis for, and actual time on such assignments will be for periods exceeding five (5) consecutive shifts or greater, not to exceed a total of twelve (12) weeks.

Employees placed on light duty or transitional assignments for less than twelve (12) weeks in a calendar year, may be required to return to such assignments for the number of weeks remaining in the calendar year.

Time worked on a light duty or transitional assignment shall not count toward the number of paid injury leave days an employee is entitled to.

An employee returned to work prior to exhausting injury leave on a light duty or transitional work assignment shall not be required to be off five (5) consecutive work days in order to use the remaining period of time available for the same injury should the light duty assignment end for any reason.

Section 6.

Light duty or transitional assignments shall not be restricted by or based on Bargaining Unit designations.

Section 7.

Employees may not work outside employment or jobs, without specific written authorization by the Employer, while receiving injury leave pay, Workers' Compensation, or compensation program funded by the Employer.

Section 8.

If an employee receiving injury leave pay is not at home, he/she must be at a doctor's office or pharmacy, or other excused location during the period of the employee's duty shift.

ARTICLE 22

Section 1.

County employees who are members of The Ohio National Guard, The Defense Corps, The Ohio Naval Militia, or members of other reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States are entitled to a military leave of absence from their duties without loss of pay, for such time as they are in the military service on field training or active duty for a period not to exceed thirty- one (31) days in any one calendar year.

Section 3.

Any County employee who has held a position for a period of at least ninety (90) days shall be granted a military leave of absence to be inducted or otherwise enter military duty. This military leave shall be without pay and shall be considered as a separation from service with reinstatement rights.

Section 4.

The provisions of this rule do not apply to an employee who re-enlists while on active duty, or a commissioned officer who voluntarily enters on extended active duty beyond that required by the acceptance of a commission. Upon re-enlistment or commencement of voluntary extended duty, the employee is not eligible for reinstatement.

ARTICLE 23

Section 1.

Employees required to appear in court on off-duty time, on behalf of the Employer or where the County is defending the employee, as a result of their employment with Lake County Sheriff's Office to testify or appear in an official capacity, or where the County is defending the employee, shall be entitled to overtime compensation at one and one-half (1-1/2) times their normal rate of pay for the time spent in court, with a minimum charge of two (2) hours if released within one (1) hour or three (3) hours if not released within one (1) hour.

Employees will not be entitled to court leave when appearing in court for criminal or civil cases, or a commission, board, or other legally constituted body authorized by law to compel the attendance of witnesses in which the employee is a plaintiff or party to the action or when the case is being heard in connection with the employees' personal matters.

In addition to bereavement, personal, or sick leave used as injury on duty, hours paid as holidays, vacations, or compensatory time shall be considered hours worked for purposes of determining overtime. Section 4.

An employee entitled to overtime pay may in lieu of overtime compensation, be provided with compensatory time off up to a forty-eight (48) hour bank.

An employee who works overtime on a shift another employee is off on compensatory time will only be permitted to be paid at the applicable rate and not permitted to request compensatory time off in lieu of overtime pay.
