ARTICLE VII WORK RULES

SECTION 1. The Union recognizes that the Employer, under this Agreement, has the right to promulgate and implement work rules, regulations, and policies and procedures that regulate the conduct of employees and the conduct of the Employer's services and programs.

SECTION 2. Prior to implementation or modification of any new or existing rule, regulation, policy or procedure which affects members of the bargaining unit, the Employer will notify the Union and meet with the Union to discuss the matter prior to the date of implementation.

SECTION 3. The Employer recognizes and agrees that no work rules, regulations, policies, or procedures shall be maintained or established that are in violation of any expressed terms or provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VIII
NO STRIKE - NO LOCKOUT

SECTION 1. Inasmuch as this Agreement provides machinery for the orderly resolution of grievances, including resolution by an impartial third party, the City and the Labor Council recognize their mutual responsibility to provide for uninterrupted services to the citizens of Willard; therefore:

The Labor Council agrees that neither it, its officers, agents, representatives nor any employees covered by this Agreement will engage in, initiate, authorize, sanction, ratify or support any strike, slowdown, stay in sick out or other curtailment or restriction of City services or interference with City work including any sympathy strike or the honoring of any picket line, including that of the Union, whether or not authorized by the Union or any other local or international Union, during the life of this Agreement. In addition, the Union and all employees agree that during the life of this Agreement, they will not hinder or interfere with any members of the public, suppliers, subcontractors, or others having business with the City.

The Union, and the officers thereof, shall be held liable for any such acts which the Union engages in, initiates, authorizes, sanctions, ratifies or supports. Any employee engaging in any of the foregoing conduct during the life of this Agreement shall be subject to disciplinary action by the City up to and including discharge.

SECTION 2. The City agrees that neither it, its officers, agents nor representatives, individually or collectively, will authorize, instigate, cause, aid or condone any lockout of any member of the Union as a result of labor dispute with the Union provided the Union members are not in violation of Section 1 of this Article.

ARTICLE IX DISCIPLINE

SECTION 1. The tenure of every Employee subject to the terms of this Agreement shall be during good behavior and efficient service. No Employee shall be reduced in pay or position (including working suspensions), fined (not in excess of five [5] days paid leave), suspended, discharged, or removed except for grounds stated in Section 2 of this Article. The Employer may take disciplinary action against any Employee in the bargaining unit for just cause. Forms of disciplinary action are:

1. Verbal warning/reprimand.
2. Written reprimand.
3. Suspension of record (i.e., paper suspension).
4. Suspension without pay, at the option of the employee, and with concurrence of the Employer, accrued vacation or holiday time may be forfeited equal to the length of the suspension. Record of suspension will be maintained.
5. Fines (i.e., forfeiture of accrued leave).
6. Reduction in pay or position.
7. Discharge.

An Employee who is given a working suspension (i.e., suspension of record) shall be required to report to work to serve the suspension and shall be compensated at the regular rate of pay for hours worked. The working suspension shall be recorded in the Employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary actions having the same effect as a suspension without pay for the purpose of recording disciplinary action.

SECTION 2. Incompetency, inefficiency, dishonesty, drunkenness, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public; neglect of duty, absence without leave, substance abuse, violation of work rules, or any conduct unbecoming a representative of the Employer, or any other acts of misfeasance or malfeasance or nonfeasance, shall be cause for disciplinary action.

SECTION 3. Except in instances where an Employee is charged with a serious offense, discipline will be applied in a corrective, progressive and uniform manner in accordance with the Employer's policy. Progressive discipline shall take into account the nature of the violation, the Employee's record of discipline, and the Employee's record of conduct.

SECTION 4. For most first offenses or violations of work rules, the Employee will meet with his/her supervisor and discuss the violation. The Supervisor will explain how the Employee's action or inaction violated the rule and will caution and counsel the Employee on what corrective action needs to be undertaken. After that meeting, the Supervisor will make a written notation to the Employee's file indicating that a verbal warning/reprimand has been given, the date of the meeting, a short synopsis of the violation, and what corrective action or steps have been discussed. Verbal warnings/reprimands shall have no force and effect nor shall they be considered for any subsequent disciplinary charges upon six (6) months after the verbal warning/reprimand has been issued, provided that there is no reoccurrence of the same incident or behavior within the six (6) month period.

SECTION 5. If the Employee continues to violate the same rule for which the Employee was previously given a verbal warning, if the Employee violates different rules, or if the seriousness of the situation warrants it, an Employee may receive a written reprimand. In such event, the Supervisor will provide the Employee written memorandum indicating the nature of the violation and, if appropriate, outlining the type of corrective action that needs to be undertaken by the Employee. The written reprimand shall be placed in the Employee's file, and shall have no force and effect nor shall they be considered for any subsequent disciplinary charges upon two (2) years after the written reprimand has been issued, provided that there is no reoccurrence of the same incident or behavior within the two (2) year period.

SECTION 6. If the Employee continues to violate the same rules in which he/she has received a written reprimand, if different violations occur after receipt of previous written reprimands, or if the situation warrants more serious action, the Employee may be suspended, reduced in pay or position, or terminated. Whenever the Employer determines that an Employee may be suspended, reduced in pay or position, or terminated, a predisciplinary meeting will be scheduled to investigate the matter. The Employer shall notify the Employee and the Union in writing of the charges against the Employee and what form of discipline may be imposed. This notification shall also include the time and place of a predisciplinary meeting, to be held within twenty-four (24) hours whenever possible, between management and the Employee.

The Employee may be accompanied by a Union Representative during the predisciplinary meeting. Should the Employee not wish to be represented by the Union, a Union Representative shall be allowed in the disciplinary meeting as an observer only. The Employee shall have an opportunity in this meeting to respond orally to the charges prior to discipline being imposed.

The Employee will receive a written memorandum indicating the disposition of the charged violations and, if a suspension, the length thereof. The memorandum shall describe the reason or reasons for which the Employee has been disciplined. Any suspension shall be for a specific number of consecutive days unless mutually agreed to be otherwise. Holidays occurring during a period of suspension shall be counted as work days for the purpose of the suspension only.

The written documentation of the suspension shall be placed in the Employee's file. The suspension shall have no force and effect nor shall they be considered for any subsequent disciplinary charges upon four (4) years after a suspension of three (3) days or less or upon five (5) years after a suspension of more than three (3) days has been issued, provided that there is no reoccurrence of the same incident or behavior within the four (4) or five (5), respectively, year period.

Any resolution to the disciplinary action by the Employee and the Employer shall be consistent with the terms and provisions of this Agreement. An Employee who is disciplined may file a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure herein.

SECTION 7. Any Employee under indictment or arrested for a felony may be placed on an administrative leave of absence with pay until resolution of the court proceedings. An Employee found guilty by trial court may be summarily demoted or discharged, and any accrued unused leave will be forfeited to offset the time spent on administrative leave. Where the charges are reduced to a misdemeanor or the Employee is found not guilty of the charges, the Employee may be subject to discipline pursuant to the terms of this Article.

ARTICLE X REVIEW OF PERSONNEL FILE

SECTION 1. It is recognized by the parties that the Employer may prescribe regulations for the custody, use, and preservation of the records, papers, books, documents, and property pertaining to the Employer. Insomuch as material in a public Employee's personnel file is considered a public record under the Ohio Public Records Law, the Employer is prohibited from denying access to certain portions of an Employee personnel file when a public records request is made for the material. The Employer agrees to notify bargaining unit Members when such a request has been made.

Every member shall be allowed the right of review and copy the complete contents of his or her personnel file, and be entitled to the rights and protections of Ohio Revised Code Section 1347.01 et seq (dealing with confidentiality of personnel files including HIPPA information, release of information in personnel files including HIPPA information, and rights of review of personnel files including HIPPA information).

Such review and copying shall be permitted during non-working time within three (3) work days after a written request is made by the Employee. Should an Employee so authorize in writing, the Employer shall extend to the Exclusive Representative the same right to review and copy the Employee's personnel files and records.

SECTION 2. Should any Member have reason to believe that there are inaccuracies in documents contained in his or her file, the Member may notify the Employer in writing of the alleged inaccuracy. Material will be removed from the file pursuant to the ORC when a Member's claim that it is inaccurate or unfair is sustained by the Employer or through the grievance procedure. If the Member feels that clarification of the circumstances surrounding the writing of such material is necessary, the Member may submit to the Employer or his designee a written clarification or explanatory memorandum. Such memorandum shall not contain derogatory or scurrilous matter regarding the Employer or any other employees. Upon examination, the Employer or his designee shall have such memorandum attached to the material to which it is directed and placed in the Member's personnel file.

ARTICLE XI GRIEVANCE

SECTION 1. A grievance is a complaint, dispute, or controversy in which it is claimed that either party has violated a specific provision of this Agreement and which involves the meaning, interpretation, or application of this Agreement.

SECTION 2. The parties agree that all grievances should be dealt with promptly and every effort should be made to resolve the grievance on an informal basis between the Employee and City representative or supervisor involved. Grievances shall be processed as follows:

STEP 1. Within seven (7) calendar days after the date on which the incident giving rise to the grievance occurred, or when the grievance occurred, or when the grievant could be expected to become aware of the event, the grievant shall discuss the matter with his or her immediate supervisor, who, if he has authority, shall make an oral response to settle the grievance.

STEP 2. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 1, then, within ten (10) days after the date on which the incident giving rise to the grievance occurred, or when the grievant could be expected to become aware of the event, the Union may appeal the grievance to Step 2. The Union shall reduce the grievance to writing, sign and date the grievance and present the written grievance to the Chief of Police or the Chief's designate. The written grievance must state all relevant facts giving rise to the grievance, the dates on which the facts occurred, and the specific provisions of this Agreement alleged to have been violated. The City shall not be obligated to process any grievance not containing the required information. The City shall respond in writing within ten (10) days after the grievance is presented to the Chief of Police or the Chief's designate.

STEP 3. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, a written appeal to the City Manager or the City Manager's designate may be filed by the Union within seven (7) calendar days following the city's Step 2 response. The City shall issue a written response within fifteen (15) days after the grievance is filed with the City Manager.

STEP 4. Any grievance, which is not settled in Step 3 of the Grievance procedure, may be submitted to the Personnel Appeals Board. Such appeal must be made within 30 days of the written response of the City Manager in STEP 3 by notifying the other party within said 30 days.

STEP 5. If either party is not satisfied with the decision of the Personnel Appeals Board, the party may submit the matter to arbitration under the provisions of Article IX. Such appeal must be made within 30 days of their receipt of the decision of the Personnel Appeals Board by notifying the other party in writing within said thirty (30) days.

SECTION 3. The parties, by mutual written agreement, may alter the grievance procedure in any respect. The parties shall make reasonable efforts to resolve grievances by consultation at all steps of the grievance process. Any grievance not initially presented or appealed to the next Step within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed settled on the basis of the City's last response and shall be barred from further processing.

SECTION 4. The City shall not be obligated to pay an Employee for any time during which the Employee serves as a Union representative in the processing of any grievance including arbitration.

SECTION 5. No grievance will be processed under this Agreement based on any action or event which took place between the effective date of this Agreement and the date the Agreement is fully executed. No grievance based on facts or incidents arising before the effective date of this Agreement shall be processed hereunder.

ARTICLE XII ARBITRATION

SECTION 1. Any grievance, except those disciplinary actions not involving a loss in pay, which is not resolved following the decision of the Personnel Appeals Board may be submitted to an impartial arbitrator by either party. Notice of intent to appeal any grievance to an impartial arbitrator shall be filed in writing with the other party within thirty (30) working days after a decision has been rendered by the Personnel Appeals Board; otherwise, such grievance shall be considered settled on the basis of the Personnel Appeals Board's decision. The thirty (30) day period provided for in this paragraph may be extended an additional thirty (30) days by joint written agreement. No grievance shall be considered under this procedure in respect to any occurrence, incident or event that arose prior to the effective date of this Agreement.

SECTION 2. Grievances not settled in the steps of the grievance procedure shall be submitted upon request to arbitration under the voluntary rules of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS). Upon the conveyance of the demand for arbitration, the parties shall request a panel of seven (7) names of Ohio residents, national academy certified arbitrators from FMCS. The parties shall alternately strike names until one (1) name remains as the selected arbitrator. Further each party may reject up to one (1) list and request another list. The City and the Union shall share equally the Arbitrator's fee and other expenses of arbitration. However, the cost of any shorthand report and all transcripts thereof shall be paid for by the party ordering same except that if the other party requests a copy of such transcript it will pay half the cost of the original and one copy. Not more than one (1) grievance arising out of a single occurrence or a class action based on a single issue which may have arisen from one or more than one occurrence shall be submitted to an Arbitrator for a determination at one time unless agreed otherwise by the City and the Union. If a single issue is involved in more than one (1) grievance at the time an Arbitrator is selected, the parties may agree to submit all such grievances for determination by that Arbitrator. The Arbitrator shall render his decision within thirty (30) calendar days after closing the proceeding. The award shall be signed by the Arbitrator, and two (2) copies of the award shall be delivered or mailed to each of the parties. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties but subject to appeal as provided for in the Ohio Revised Code.

SECTION 3. The Arbitrator will make his decision based upon the evidence submitted by both parties. The Arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement or any supplemental agreement.

ARTICLE XIII BULLETIN BOARDS

The Union shall provide a bulletin board at the Willard Police Department for the exclusive use of the Union. The bulletin board shall be 2'x2' in size and the City will provide space for the bulletin board in the Day Room.

Each notice or other matter to be posted shall be approved by the Chief of Police before posting, except notices of Union meetings, Union appointments, Union elections and the results of same and Union social and recreational activities.

The Union agrees that no notices will be placed on the bulletin boards which contain: (a) personal attacks upon any individual; (b) scandalous, scurrilous or derogatory attacks upon any individual and/or the administration; (c) attacks on any other employee organization; (d) any obscene materials; (e) any material of a discriminatory nature; (f) advocacy of any political position, other than Union election, PERS and/or Police and Fire Disability Pension Fund election matters.

ARTICLE XIV PROBATIONARY PERIOD

SECTION 1. During the first twelve (12) months of employment with the City, an Employee shall be considered probationary. Probationary Employees shall be subject to discipline and/or discharge at the City's discretion at any time for failing to meet the qualifications and/or standards of the position. Such discipline and/or discharge will not be subject to the grievance and/or arbitration procedure.

SECTION 2. Employees who have completed the Basic Police Officers Training School and have been certified by the State shall be considered probationary employees during the first twelve (12) months of employment with the City.

SECTION 3. Any employee who has not completed the Basic Police Officers Training School and been certified by the State, prior to expiration of the twelve (12) month probationary period, shall be terminated as an employee of the City.

SECTION 4. A Union member whose probationary period is interrupted by absence due to layoff or leave of absence shall complete this probationary period upon returning to work. The period of time during which an employee was absent from work due to layoff or leave of absence shall not be counted as part of the probationary period.

SECTION 5. At the expiration of their probationary period, an Employee shall be covered by all the terms of this Agreement with the exception of discipline, discharge and/or demotion.

SECTION 6. An Employee who is promoted to a higher job classification shall serve a probationary period of six (6) months in such classifications and/or standards of the position. Such demotion will not be subject to the grievance and/or arbitration provisions.

ARTICLE XV HOURS OF WORK

SECTION 1. A full-time employee is one who is hired to work and who works regularly forty (40) hours per week.

SECTION 2. A part-time employee is one who is hired to work regularly fewer than thirty-five (35) hours per week.

SECTION 3. A temporary/casual employee is one who is hired to work on a temporary basis for one hundred twenty (120) days or fewer per year.

SECTION 4. A seasonal employee is one who is hired to work regularly fewer than nine (9) months per year.

SECTION 5. The parties recognize that the City employs temporary, seasonal, part-time and auxiliary/reserve personnel to perform bargaining unit work and that the City has retained its inherent management right to use such personnel.

SECTION 6. Part-time, temporary/casual, seasonal, and auxiliary/reserve employees and police officers and dispatchers during their first sixty (60) days of the probationary period shall not be covered by the terms of this Agreement.

SECTION 7. Employees of the Willard Police Department shall have a regular schedule which consists of forty (40) hours in a seven (7) consecutive work day period, Sunday through Saturday.

SECTION 8. During the semiannual time change, any employee of the Willard Police Department working a shift during the time change shall be compensated eight (8) hours during the shortened seven (7) hour shift and for nine (9) hours when those hours were actually worked.

SECTION 9. At any time during the duration of this agreement, providing it is agreed upon by the City and the bargaining unit, the hours of work and/or length of shift may be changed. Any change shall include a trial period not to exceed three months. Four weeks prior to the completion of any trial period, the City and the bargaining unit shall meet to discuss any future problems. If both sides are in agreement with the next schedule, then the schedule shall become permanent. If a new schedule cannot be agreed upon, the last successful schedule employed will be reinstated. In the event of an emergency, the city may temporarily suspend the schedule until the emergency subsides.

ARTICLE XVI NEW POSITIONS/CLASSIFICATIONS

SECTION 1. In the event that a new position/classification is created within the Police Department, the City shall have the right to determine whether the new position/classification will be included in or excluded from the bargaining unit and shall so advise the Labor Council as to the position/classification and wage rate. If there is any dispute as to the City's determination of bargaining unit status and/or wage rate, the parties will meet to attempt to resolve their disagreement. If the parties agree on the determination, the new position/classification and wage rate shall be implemented, and the Employer and the Union shall file a joint petition to amend the bargaining unit with the State Employment Relations Board (SERB).

SECTION 2. Should the parties disagree on the inclusion/exclusion of a new position/classification in the bargaining unit, the Union or Employer may petition to amend/clarify the bargaining unit with the State Employment Relations Board (SERB). If SERB determines that the new position/classification is to be included in the bargaining unit, the Union may file a notice to negotiate concerning the initial wage rate or schedule established by the Employer within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the determination.

SECTION 3. If negotiations are initiated and the parties are unable to reach agreement, the issue may be submitted to SERB for resolution in accordance with O.R.C. 4117.

ARTICLE XVII OVERTIME

SECTION 1. The City retains its inherent right to require and schedule overtime.

SECTION 2. Compensation for overtime shall be according to the following schedule:

- (a) All overtime will be paid at a rate of one and one-half (1-1/2) times the regular base hourly rate of the employee.
- (b) There shall be no duplication or pyramiding of any premiums for the same hours worked.
- (c) Employees of the Willard Police Department shall be paid one and one-half (1- 1/2) times the Employee's regular hourly base rate for all hours worked by an Employee in excess of forty (40) hours in a seven (7) day work week, except that no schedule shall be changed to avoid the payment of overtime.
- (d) Non-worked hours which are paid by the City, including but not limited to, personal days, call-in time, and jury duty pay, shall not be included as hours worked for the calculation of overtime.

SECTION 3. All overtime scheduled at least 48 hours in advance, except that overtime applicable to the Law Enforcement Block Grant, shall be offered to bargaining unit personnel based upon a rotating list kept by the Chief of Police or his designate, initially listing members of the bargaining unit by seniority. Each bargaining unit member who either accepts or rejects offered overtime shall thereafter be rotated to the bottom of the list. Any bargaining unit member who is called and for any reason is unable to or does not respond to the call for scheduled overtime shall remain at the top of the list. Any failure by bargaining unit members while serving as the Chief's designate to schedule overtime in accordance with this article shall not result in a grievable offense.
