ARTICLE 1. PREAMBLE

Section 1.1. Purpose.

This agreement, entered into by the Clermont County Sheriff, hereinafter referred to as the "Employer", and the Clermont County Corrections Association hereinafter referred to as the "CCCA" or Union has as its purpose the following:

- A. To comply with the requirements of Chapter 4117 of the Ohio Revised Code; and to set forth the full and complete understandings and agreements between the parties governing the wages, hours, terms and other conditions of employment for those Employees included in the bargaining unit as defined herein.
- B. To supersede all Civil Service laws with the expressed provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 2. CCCA RECOGNITION

Section 2.1 Sole and Exclusive Representative

The Employer recognizes the CCCA as the sole and exclusive representative for those Employees of the Employer in the bargaining unit. Wherever used in this agreement, the term "bargaining unit" shall be deemed to include those full-time Employees employed by the Employer in the classification of Corrections Officer as certified by the Ohio State Employment Relations Board in case number 08-REP-06-0098, dated September 12, 2008.

Section 2.2. Exclusion from Bargaining Unit

All persons not classified as Corrections Officers, all Deputy Sheriffs, Investigators, and Sergeants are specifically excluded from the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 3. CCCA SECURITY

Section 3.1. Dues and Fees to be Deducted

The Employer agrees to deduct CCCA membership dues and fees in accordance with this Article for all eligible Employees in the bargaining unit.

Section 3.2. Dues Authorization Necessary

The Employer agrees to deduct regular CCCA membership dues once each month from the pay of any Employee in the bargaining unit upon receiving written authorization on a mutually acceptable form signed individually and voluntarily by the Employee. The signed payroll deduction form must be presented to the Employer's fiscal officer. Upon receipt of the proper authorization, the Employer will deduct CCCA dues from the payroll check for the next pay period in which dues are normally deducted following the pay period in which the authorization was received by the Employer.

Section 3.3. Fair Share Fee

As a condition of employment, sixty (60) days following the beginning of employment, or upon the effective date of the Labor Agreement, whichever is later, employees in the bargaining unit who are not members of the CCCA, including employees who resign from membership in the CCCA after the effective date of this Labor Agreement, shall pay to the CCCA, through payroll deduction, a fair share fee.

The fair share fee is automatic and does not require the written authorization of the employee. This provision shall not require any employee to become or remain a member of the CCCA, nor shall the fair share fee exceed the dues paid by members of the CCCA in the same bargaining unit. The CCCA is responsible for annually certifying to the Employer the amount of the fair share fee, along with a breakdown of its use, prior to the implementation of this Section.

If an employee challenges through the Courts or the State Employment Relations Board the deduction of the fair share fee, his/her deductions shall continue, but the funds shall be placed in an interest bearing escrow account until a resolution of his/her challenge is reached. The party in whose favor the resolution is determined shall receive the escrowed funds, including the interest, if any.

Section 3.4. Remittance to the CCCA

The Employer agrees to remit the dues/fees deducted from the eligible bargaining unit Employees' pay, in accordance with this Article, to the offices of Hardin, Lazarus, Lewis & Marks LLC at 30 Garfield Place, Suite 915, Cincinnati, Ohio 45202 or such address as set forth by the CCCA from time to time, once each month for the duration of this agreement.

Section 3.5. Indemnification

The parties agree that the Employer assumes no obligation, financial or otherwise, arising out of the provisions of this Article regarding the deduction of CCCA dues/fees. The CCCA hereby agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any claims, actions or proceedings by an Employee arising from deductions made by the Employer pursuant to this Article. Once the funds are remitted to the CCCA, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the CCCA.

Section 3.6. Relief from Making Deduction

The Employer shall be relieved from making such individual dues/fees "check off" deductions upon an Employee's wages for the following reasons:

- (1) termination of employment;
- (2) transfer to a job other than one covered by the bargaining unit;
- (3) layoff from work;
- (4) an unpaid leave of absence;
- (5) revocation of the checkoff authorization in accordance with Section 3.9 below;
- (6) resignation of the Employee from the CCCA.

Section 3.7. Sufficient Wages Needed for Deduction

The Employer shall not be obligated to make dues/fees deductions from any Employee, who during any dues month involved, shall have failed to receive sufficient wages to make all legally required deductions in addition to the deduction of the CCCA dues/fees.

Section 3.8. Errors in Processing of Deductions

The parties agree that neither the Employees nor the CCCA shall have a claim against the Employer for errors in the processing of deductions, unless a claim of error is made to the Employer in writing within sixty (60) days after the date such an error is claimed to have occurred. If it is found that an error was made, it will be corrected at the next pay period that the CCCA dues/fees deduction would normally be made by deducting the proper amount.

Section 3.9. Notification to Employer of Deduction Amount

The rate at which dues/fees are to be deducted shall be certified to the payroll clerk by the CCCA once each year. One (1) month advance notice must be given the payroll clerk prior to making any changes in an individual's dues/fees deductions.

Section 3.10. Authorization for Dues Deduction to be Honored

Except as otherwise provided herein, each eligible employee's written authorization for dues deduction shall be honored by the Employer for the duration of this Agreement or until such employee submits a written revocation of the dues deduction authorization to the Employer or designee.

ARTICLE 4. CCCA REPRESENTATION AND UNION BUSINESS

Section 4.1. Non-Employee Representatives May be Admitted

With prior approval, non-employee representative(s) of the CCCA shall be admitted to the Employer's facilities for the purpose of processing grievances or attending meetings as permitted herein. Representatives shall not have access to cell blocks, central control, or cell block control areas.

Upon arrival, the CCCA representative shall identify himself to the Employer or the Employer's designated representative.

Section 4.2. Employee Representatives

The Employer shall recognize one (1) Employee, and two (2) alternates, designated by the CCCA to act as CCCA Associate for the purpose of representation as outlined under this Agreement. No Employee shall be recognized by the Employer as an CCCA Associate until the CCCA has presented the Employer with written certification of that person's selection. Not more than one associate shall be released from duty at any time, except for negotiations, to attend to CCCA business.

Section 4.3. Rules Governing CCCA Representatives and Associates

Rules governing the activity of CCCA representatives and Associates are as follows:

- 1) The CCCA agrees that no official of the CCCA, employee or non-employee, shall interfere, interrupt, or disrupt the normal work duties of other Employees. The CCCA further agrees not to conduct CCCA business during the working hours except to the extent specifically authorized herein.
- 2) The CCCA shall not conduct CCCA activities in any work area(s) without notifying the Sheriff of the nature of the CCCA activity.
- 3) The CCCA Employee official shall cease unauthorized activities immediately upon the request of the Sheriff.
- 4) The investigation and writing of grievances shall be on non-duty time. If grievance meetings are scheduled by the Sheriff during an Employee's regular duty hours, the Employee shall not suffer any loss of pay while attending the hearing.

- 5) The CCCA may designate the Associate and two (2) members of the bargaining unit to serve on its negotiating committee. Negotiating committee members shall be released from duty without loss of pay for the duration of the negotiation meeting and, if on duty, shall return to duty upon completion of the negotiation meeting. The CCCA may substitute an alternative representative for a member of the negotiation committee.

Section 4.4. Bulletin Board.

The Employer agrees to provide bulletin board space in the roll call room or other suitable location for use by the CCCA. The CCCA may post on the bulletin board notices relating to recreational and social events applicable to members of the bargaining unit; election notices and election results; notices of membership meetings and other related business meetings and with prior approval of the Sheriff; other official CCCA notices relating to the affairs of members of the bargaining unit.

No obscene, immoral, unethical, scurrilous, or vituperative matter may be posted. All items posted shall be approved and signed by the CCCA Associate. The bulletin board shall be maintained in a neat and orderly manner.

Section 4.5. Confidentiality of Statements Made to CCCA Representative

Any oral statement made by a bargaining unit member to his CCCA representative shall not be subject to compulsory disclosure. This section shall not apply to disclosures of criminal activities made to an CCCA representative who is an employee of the Clermont County Sheriff.

Section 4.6. Attendance at CCCA Functions

The Employer shall make reasonable provisions for authorizing vacation leave, holidays or the use of accrued overtime for the member to attend CCCA functions. Nothing in this provision shall require the Employer to alter existing leave policies.

ARTICLE 5. NON-DISCRIMINATION

Section 5.1. No Interference by the Employer

The Employer agrees not to interfere with the rights of the Employees to become members of the CCCA. There shall be no disparate treatment, interference, restraint or coercion by the Employer, or any representative of the Employer against any Employee engaged in a legal activity in an official capacity on behalf of the CCCA.

Section 5.2. No Interference by the Union

The CCCA agrees not to interfere with the rights of Employees to not become members of the CCCA. There shall be no disparate treatment, restraint, or coercion by the CCCA or its representatives against any Employee exercising the right to abstain from membership in or involvement with CCCA activities.

Section 5.3. Joint Agreement Not to Discriminate

The Employer and the CCCA agree not to discriminate against any bargaining unit Employee with respect to compensation, terms or conditions of employment because of such individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, disability, or ancestry.

Section 5.4. Gender Reference

All references to Employees in this agreement designate both sexes, and wherever the male gender is used, it shall be construed to include male and female Employees.

ARTICLE 6. MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 6.1. Rights of the Employer.

Except where the parties have specifically set forth in this Agreement, the Sheriff shall retain all rights imposed upon him by law, to carry out the administration of the Department and the government of the County. The right to manage shall include, but not be limited to:

- A) The right to direct, supervise, hire, promote, and evaluate; to suspend, discipline, or discharge for cause; to transfer, assign, schedule and retain employees.
- B) The right to relieve Employees from duty and determine the number of personnel needed in the Department, or to perform any functions; determine the services to be rendered, operations to be performed, utilization of technology, and overall budgetary matters.
- C) The right to purchase equipment, materials or services. Should the Employer have the need to contract out or sub-contract out for services, the Employer shall notify the Union ninety (90) calendar days before such action of such intention and shall meet with the Union within (10) calendar days of the notice, to attempt to negotiate an alternative to contracting out or sub-contracting out.
- D) The right to determine the appropriate job duties and personnel by which operations are to be conducted; determine the overall mission of the Department; maintain and improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Department, and the County.
- E) The right to make reasonable rules and to regulate the Department, and to establish and amend policies and procedures, and necessary rules relating to the operation of the Department in regard to any matter. Rules shall not be inconsistent with any provision of this Agreement.
- F) The right to take any necessary actions to carry out the mission of the Department in situations of emergency, and to take whatever actions may be necessary to carry out the wishes of the public not otherwise specified above.
- G) The right to determine equipment to be used, the processes, techniques, methods and means of operation, schedules of shifts and working hours, and the right to establish standards of performance; to establish, maintain and amend occupational classifications and job descriptions and establish working rules, regulations, policies and procedures governing the conduct of employees. Such actions shall not be inconsistent with any provision of this Agreement.

- H) The right to determine the geographical location of County facilities; to establish new units and relocate or disestablish existing units or facilities in part or in total.
- I) The right to assign to shifts and duties.
- J) The right to introduce new or improved methods, operations, equipment or facilities.
- K) The right to schedule overtime work as required.
- L) The right to determine the need for additional educational courses; training programs; on-the-job training and cross-training.

Section 6.2. Modification or Limitation of Rights.

Where the rights, powers and authority itemized above are modified or limited by the express terms and provisions of this Agreement, they shall only be modified or limited to the extent specifically provided therein. Any exercise of these rights in violation of the express terms of this Agreement is subject to the grievance arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE 7. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 7.1. Grievance Defined.

The term "grievance" shall mean an allegation by a grievant Employee that there has been a breach, misinterpretation, or improper application of a specific term of this Agreement.

A disciplinary grievance refers to a grievance involving a suspension, removal, reduction in pay, position or rank.

In cases of discipline not involving loss of pay, if an Employee disagrees, he/she may write a memorandum to the Employer or his designee explaining his/her position and why he/she disagrees with that discipline. If the Employer or designee agrees with the Employee, the discipline shall be removed from the Employee's file. If the Employer does not agree with the Employee, the Employer shall attach the Employee's memorandum to the discipline and keep both of them in the Employee's file.

Section 7.2. Timely Processing of Grievances.

All grievances must be processed at the proper step in the progression in order to be considered at the subsequent steps. Any Employee may withdraw a grievance at any point by submitting in writing a statement to that effect, or by permitting the time requirements at any step to lapse without further appeal. Any grievance not answered by the Employer's representatives within the stipulated time limits may be advanced by the Employee to the next step in the grievance procedure or to arbitration. A failure by the Employer to make a timely response is not a default. All time limits on grievances may be extended upon mutual consent of the parties, otherwise, time limits shall be strictly applied.

Section 7.3. Grievance Procedure.

It is the mutual desire of the Employer and the CCCA to provide for the prompt adjustment of grievances in a fair and reasonable manner, with a minimum interruption of the work schedules. Every reasonable effort shall be made by both the Employer and the CCCA to effect the resolution of grievances at the earliest step possible. In the furtherance of this objective, the following procedure shall be followed:

Step 1. Immediate Supervisor.

In order for an alleged grievance to receive consideration under this procedure the grievant, with an appropriate CCCA representative, if the former desires, must identify the alleged grievance in writing to his immediate supervisor, within seven (7) working days of the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the grievance, or within seven (7) working days of becoming aware of an incident giving rise to the grievance. The immediate supervisor shall schedule a meeting within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the grievance, with the grievant and his representative. The immediate supervisor shall investigate and respond in writing to the grievant and/or CCCA representative within seven (7) calendar days following the meeting.

Step 2. Corrections Chief.

If the grievance remains unsettled, it may be presented within seven (7) calendar days after the immediate supervisor's response to the Chief in charge of Corrections. The Chief shall schedule a meeting between the parties within (10) calendar days. The Chief shall have seven (7) calendar days following the meeting in which to respond.

Step 3. Arbitration.

Within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt of the response at Step 2, if the grievance is not resolved to the satisfaction of the grievant, the grievant may file, with approval of the CCCA, a request for arbitration. Within ten (10) calendar days of a request for arbitration, a representative of the CCCA and the Sheriff or his designee shall attempt to mutually agree to an arbitrator. Should the CCCA and the Sheriff fail to agree to an arbitrator, the arbitrator shall be selected in the following manner:

- A. The CCCA shall request from the American Arbitration Association or other service that is mutually agreed to by the parties, a panel list of seven (7) arbitrators from Ohio.
- B. The arbitrator shall schedule a hearing, at a date and time agreeable to all parties to hear testimony and receive argument. The arbitrator shall be requested to issue his decision within thirty (30) calendar days of the hearing. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding on the employee(s), CCCA, and the Employer. The costs of the services of the arbitrator, if any, shall be paid equally by the Employer and the CCCA. Nothing in this Section prevents the CCCA from seeking enforcement of any arbitration decision in a court of competent jurisdiction, provided all administrative remedies have been exhausted. The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, delete from, or modify the terms of this Agreement, but may interpret and apply same. The arbitrator shall have authority to determine the arbitrability of the matter during the same hearing that is held on the merits.

- C. Nothing in this Article or Section shall prevent the parties from mutually agreeing on an Arbitrator prior to beginning the selection procedures outlined in (A) above.

Section 7.4. Class Action Grievance.

A grievance may be brought by any member of the bargaining unit. Where a group of bargaining unit members desire to file a grievance involving a situation affecting each member in the same manner, one member selected by such group may process the grievance as a class action grievance, provided each Employee desiring to be included in the class action grievance, signs said grievance.

Section 7.5. Disciplinary Grievance.

A disciplinary matter which has proceeded through the pre-disciplinary conference may be grieved directly to step three (3) of the grievance process.

ARTICLE 8. DISCIPLINE

Section 8.1. Just Cause Needed to Discipline.

The tenure of every bargaining unit Employee of the Clermont County Sheriff's Office shall be during good behavior and efficient service. No Employee shall be reduced in pay and position, suspended, discharged, or removed except in accord with the provisions of this Agreement. The Employer may take disciplinary action against any Employee in the bargaining unit only for just cause.

Section 8.2. Forms of Disciplinary Action.

Forms of disciplinary action may include:

- A) Verbal warning;
- B) Written reprimand;
- C) Loss of up to twenty-four (24) hours accrued vacation, or other accrued time off¹;
- D) Suspension without pay;
- E) Demotion;
- F) Discharge from employment;

Section 8.3. Anonymous Complaint.

Anonymous complaints shall not be the basis for disciplinary action unless independent evidence supports the allegations in the anonymous complaint.

Section 8.4. Discipline to be in a Businesslike Manner.

Any time the Employer or any of his representatives have reason to investigate or discipline an Employee, it shall be done in a proper and businesslike manner that will not embarrass the Employee before other Employees or the public.

¹ May be imposed by the Sheriff only with the concurrence of the penalized Employee.

Section 8.5. Investigations of Employee Misconduct.

Any investigative questioning regarding charges of employee misconduct shall be made under the following conditions:

- A) The questioning shall take place at the Sheriff's Office or other mutually agreeable site.
- B) The employee shall be informed of the nature of the investigation before any questioning commences. If it is shown that the employee is being questioned as a witness only, he should be so advised prior to the commencement of questioning.
- C) During the questioning, the employee shall not be threatened with dismissal or other disciplinary action. No promises of reward shall be made as inducements for the answering of questions.
- D) The employee shall not be denied his/her right to representation during questioning.

Section 8.6. Notification of Investigation Status.

Employees who have been notified that they are the subject of possible disciplinary action shall be informed every thirty (30) days whether or not the investigation is continuing and whether or not discipline is still pending. This provision does not require the Sheriff to disclose to any employee that he or she is the subject of any investigation.

Section 8.7. Pre-Disciplinary Conference to be Held.

Whenever the Employer or his designee determines that an employee's conduct may warrant disciplinary action (suspensions, demotions, or discharge only) a predisciplinary conference will be scheduled to give the employee an opportunity to offer an explanation of the alleged misconduct. Where circumstances necessitate immediate removal, an employee may be relieved from duty with pay during the pendency of a predisciplinary conference. Predisciplinary conferences shall be scheduled within a reasonable period of time after the conclusion of any investigation.

Section 8.8. Notice of Pre-Disciplinary Conference.

Not less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the scheduled starting time of the predisciplinary conference, the Employer will provide to the Employee a written outline of the charges which may be the basis for disciplinary action.

- A) The Employee shall be apprised of his right to representation and the right to postpone the hearing for no more than forty-eight (48) hours beyond the original scheduled time.
- B) The Employee shall be apprised as to whether or not he/she has been suspended by the Sheriff, pending the outcome of the conference.
- C) At the time that the Employee receives the written outline of charges, he must choose to:
 - 1) appear at the conference to present an oral or written statement in his defense; or
 - 2) appear at the conference and have a chosen representative present an oral or written statement in defense of the Employee; or
 - 3) elect in writing to waive the opportunity to have a predisciplinary conference.

Failure of the Employee to elect and exercise one (1) of the three (3) options will serve as a waiver of the Employee's right hereunder to a predisciplinary conference.

Section 8.9. Questioning During the Pre-Disciplinary Conference.

At the pre-disciplinary conference, the Employer or his designee will ask the employee or his representative to respond to the allegations of misconduct which were outlined to the employee in the notice of the pre-disciplinary conference prior to the questioning. The employee shall be notified that failure to respond or responding untruthfully may result in further disciplinary action.

Section 8.10. Rights of the Employee at the Pre-Disciplinary Conference.

At the pre-disciplinary conference, the employee may present any testimony, witnesses, or documents which explain whether or not the alleged conduct occurred. The employee may be represented by an CCA representative(s). The employee shall provide a list of witnesses as far in advance as possible, but not later than one (1) hour prior to the predisciplinary conference. It is the employee's responsibility to notify the witnesses that their attendance is desired (required).

Section 8.11. Polygraph Examination.

The results of a polygraph examination shall not be used in the disciplinary hearing without corroborating evidence. Drug and alcohol screening shall be done in accordance with Article 36.

Section 8.12. Grieving a Discipline Action.

Disciplinary actions may be appealed through the grievance procedure in accordance with the Grievance Procedure Article unless the employee has waived his right of appeal pursuant to Section 8.7.

In cases of discipline not involving loss of pay, if an Employee disagrees, he/she may write a memorandum to the Employer or his designee explaining his/her position and why he/she disagrees with that discipline. If the Employer or designee agrees with the Employee, the discipline shall be removed from the Employee's file. If the Employer does not agree with the Employee, the Employer shall attach the Employee's memorandum to the discipline and keep both of them in the Employee's file.

ARTICLE 9. PERSONNEL FILE

Section 9.1. Personnel Files May be Inspected.

Each Employee may request to inspect his personnel file maintained by the Employer. Inspection of personnel files shall be by scheduled appointments requested to the Employer. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied. Appointments shall be during the regular scheduled work hours of the clerical staff of the Employer. An Employee shall be entitled to have a representative of his choice accompany him during such review.

Section 9.2. Unfavorable and Anonymous Materials.

If an unfavorable statement or notation is in the file, the Employee shall be given the right to place a statement of rebuttal or explanation in his file. No anonymous material of any type shall be included in the Employee's personnel file.

Section 9.3. Retention of Discipline Records.

Records of discipline shall cease to have force and effect and shall, upon request from the Employee be removed from an Employee's personnel file, provided no intervening discipline has occurred according to the following:

Verbal warnings or any written entry that the employee engaged in any inappropriate behavior.	six (6) months from the date of issuance
Written reprimands	twelve (12) months from the date of issuance
Suspensions of less than five (5) days	two (2) years from the date of issuance of five (5) days or more	three (3) years from the date of issuance

Section 9.4. Compliance with Public Records Laws.

Nothing in this article shall restrict the Sheriff's compliance with Ohio Public Records Laws. The Sheriff shall make every effort to notify an employee of a request to review an employee's personnel file.

Section 9.5. Personnel Files and Grievances.

Should any document of the Employee's personnel file be the subject of a grievance, the CCCA, with the Employee's presence and consent, shall be granted access to those documents in question and have the right to photo copies.

Section 9.6. Removing Inaccurate Documents.

In the event the Employer and the Employee agree that any documents are inaccurate, the Employer shall correct or remove such documents or the inaccurate portions thereof from the file.

Section 9.7. A Personnel File to be Maintained.

There shall be only one official personnel file. Nothing restricts the right of supervisors, or the county, to maintain other files relating to personnel, but such files shall not be the official personnel file.

ARTICLE 10. PROBATIONARY PERIOD

Section 10.1. Probationary Period to be Served

Any person hired into the bargaining unit or appointed as a Corrections Officer from another position shall be required to successfully complete a probationary period of one hundred eighty (180) days. The Sheriff shall have the right, solely at his discretion on an individual basis to extend a probationary period for up to an additional one hundred eighty (180) days. An Employee serving a probationary period may be removed at any time during the probationary period, with or without cause, and without recourse to the grievance and arbitration procedure and without appeal to the state personnel board of review. Probationary Employees serve at the will of the Sheriff.

Section 10.2. Return to Position After Promotion.

Any bargaining unit Employee who is promoted to any position outside of the bargaining unit but within the ranks of corrections personnel, shall be permitted to return to the bargaining unit upon a failure of probation in the higher position. A promoted Employee may voluntarily return to the bargaining unit within sixty (60) days after the date of the promotion.

ARTICLE 11. SENIORITY

Section 11.1. Seniority Defined.

"Seniority" shall be based on the uninterrupted length of continuous service in classification with the Employer. A termination of employment lasting less than thirty-one (31) days shall not constitute a break in continuous service. Once continuous service is broken, unless the Employee is reinstated, the Employee loses all previously accumulated seniority.

Section 11.2. Seniority During Probation Period.

Employees shall have no seniority during their probationary period, but shall be granted seniority upon successful completion of the probationary period, calculated from the date of hire.

Section 11.3. Order of Seniority.

Whenever two (2) or more employees have the same hire date, the order of seniority shall be determined by lottery selection. The names of all employees having the same hire date will be drawn at random, one (1) name at a time until all names are drawn. The order of selection shall determine the order of seniority, with the employee whose name is drawn first having the greater seniority. Lottery selection will be made by the Sheriff or his representative in the presence of a union representative.

Section 11.4. Break in Seniority Defined.

Seniority is broken when an employee:

- A) Is discharged for cause;
- B) Is laid-off and not recalled within a twenty-four (24) month period from the date of layoff;
- C) Is off the payroll for ninety (90) days, except approved leave of absence, military service, or resignation, if reinstated within one (1) year.

Section 11.5. Approved Leave of Absence.

An approved leave of absence of one (1) year or less does not constitute a break in continuous service provided the Employee follows the proper procedure for such leave and returns to active service immediately following the expiration of the approved leave. This leave may be extended by the Sheriff for one (1) additional year for educational purposes.

Section 11.6. Application of Seniority.

Seniority shall govern layoff and recall as well as the granting and selection of holidays, vacation, personal days, paid leave and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 12. LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 12.1. Notification of Layoff.

When the Employer determines that a long-term layoff or job abolishment is necessary, he shall notify the affected Employees thirty (30) days in advance of the effective date of the layoff or job abolishment. Employees will be notified of the Employer's decision to implement any short-term layoff, lasting seventy-two (72) hours or less as soon as possible.

Section 12.2. Order of Layoff.

Except as provided in subsection 12.2.2 layoffs in the bargaining unit shall be in inverse order of seniority in classification, with the least senior employee being laid off first.

12.2.2 If a layoff occurs during the period of February 15, 2015 and February 10, 2018 and if the layoff would result in the reduction of the number of female Corrections Officers below sixteen (16) females, the Employer may skip over a female Corrections Officer and layoff the next most senior male Corrections Officer and retain a less senior female Corrections Officer.

Section 12.3. Recall.

Employees who are laid off shall be placed on a recall list for a period of thirty-six (36) months. The Employer may grant a leave of absence to any Employee for a duration up to one (1) year for any personal reasons of the Employee. Such a leave may not be renewed or extended except for educational purposes.

1. The authorization of a leave of absence without pay is a matter of administrative discretion. The Employer will decide in each individual case if a leave of absence is to be granted.

2. The granting of any leave of absence is subject to approval of the Employer. Except for emergencies, Employees will advise the Employer sixty (60) days prior to commencement of the desired leave so that the various agency functions may proceed properly.
3. Upon completion of a leave of absence the Employee is to be returned to the position formerly occupied, or to a similar position if the Employee's former position no longer exists. An Employee shall request prior approval for court leave, in order for such leave to be granted.

Section 21.2. Military Leave.

All Employees who are members of the Ohio National Guard, the Ohio Defense Corps, the State or Federal Militia, or members of other reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States are entitled to leaves of absence from their respective duties, and to their regular rate of pay and their military base rates of pay, for such time as they are in military service on field training or active duties for periods not to exceed a total of two hundred (200) working hours in one (1) calendar year. Employees are required to submit to the Employer an order or statement from the appropriate military commander of evidence of such duty. There is not a requirement that the service be in one (1) continuous period of time.

Leave for male Employees may be deducted from sick leave for care of the Employee's wife and/or family during the post-natal period. Such sick leave shall be for a maximum period of five (5) consecutive days. Written requests for this purpose must be submitted to and approved by the Employer. An Employee's use of paternity leave shall not be counted as an occurrence of sick leave for any purpose, provided that the Employee requests FMLA leave for that time.

Section 21.4. Injury Leave.

An Employee who is disabled because of an injury suffered in the actual performance of duties on behalf of the Sheriff, and which injury arises out of the performance of duties and is of such a nature that would not occur to the general population, shall receive paid injury leave for absences due to the injury, which shall not be deducted from sick leave.

Injury leave shall not be available until after the disability has extended beyond seven (7) work days. The first seven (7) days of absence shall be charged to sick leave.

Injury leave shall be available during a period of six (6) months from the date of injury. After six (6) months from the date of injury, absences due to such injury shall be charged to sick leave.

An Employee requesting injury leave shall upon request by the Sheriff submit to an examination by the county physician who shall determine the extent of the disability.

Granting of injury leave is contingent upon the Employee filing for workers compensation and reimbursing the county with benefits received for lost wages for any time for which paid injury leave was provided. Reimbursement shall not exceed the amount paid as injury leave pay.

If an employee on injury leave is cleared for light duty work, and the Sheriff has such light duty work available, the Sheriff may require the employee to do the light duty work. If the employee refuses to do the light duty work upon a proper request from the Sheriff, the employee shall not be entitled to further paid injury leave. An employee's ability to perform light duty will initially be determined by employee's doctor. If the employee's physician refuses to clear the employee, the Sheriff may send the employee to the County's physician for a second opinion. If the County's physician clears the employee to return to light duty, and the employee's physician continues to disagree, the two physicians will pick a third physician to decide the issue. To the extent that the County's physician and the third physician's fees are not paid by insurance, they will be paid by the County.
