9.3. Before an employee may be charged with any violation of the Rules and Regulations for a refusal to answer questions or participate in an investigation, he/she shall be advised that his/her refusal to answer such questions or participate in an investigation may be the basis of such a charge and result in disciplinary action.

9.4 Complaints from third parties, which may result in disciplinary action, must be reduced to writing. The employee involved will be notified of the existence of a complaint upon commencement of an investigation of the allegations in the complaint. The notification to the employee may be delayed in the event that the matter involves a bona fide investigation of criminal conduct by the employee. Prior to any questioning of the employee, the employee will be notified of his/her right to be represented by a Union representative and apprised of his/her "Garrity" rights concerning any statement made by him/her.

9.5 The commencement of taking disciplinary action or notification that asserted charges/complaints are unfounded shall occur within fourteen (14) calendar days after completion of the investigation of the matter as determined by the Chief of Police. (See attached form) The internal investigation will be completed within thirty (30) calendar days after the attached notification is given unless extended at the discretion of the Chief of Police or Designee. The Police Chief or Designee may extend the above referenced time period up to an additional sixty (60) calendar days by notifying the Union in writing. Upon the commencement of disciplinary action, and reasonably prior to any hearing(s) conducted therewith, the employee shall be entitled to copies of such internal documents as may constitute public records under R.C. Section 149.43 which are being utilized in connection with said disciplinary proceedings.

ARTICLE 10 PERSONNEL FILES

10.1 An employee may request an opportunity to review his/her permanent personnel file located in the Human Resources Office during normal business hours, add pertinent memoranda to the file and may have a representative of the Union present when reviewing his/her file, along with an Employer representative. A request for copies at the employee's cost, of the items in his file shall be honored. An employee may request removal of specific items in his/her file, which request would be subject to review by the Employer at its discretion, on a case-by-case basis. All items in an employee's file with regard to complaints and investigation will be clearly marked with respect to final disposition. Records of written or verbal written reprimands that are more than two (2) years old shall be expunged from the employee's permanent personnel file, providing there has been no other disciplinary action during such period.

10.2 Records of corrective counseling or coaching will be maintained in the Police Division personnel file for six (6) months. Corrective counseling must occur within thirty (30) days of the conduct in question and may be appealed only to the Chief of Police.

1. Illness or injury of the employee or his/her immediate family.
2. Medical, dental, or optical examinations or treatment of an employee or his/her immediate family which requires the employee's attendance, which cannot be scheduled outside of normal working hours.

3. If a member of the immediate family is afflicted with a contagious disease, or when, through exposure to a contagious disease, the presence of the employee at his/her job will jeopardize the health of others.
4. Pregnancy and/or childbirth and other related conditions.
5. Where the employee's parents or spouse's parents have an emergency.

Employees who fail to call-in at least one (1) hour before his shift shall forfeit one (1) hours pay for each fifteen (15) minutes he calls in less than the one (1) hour minimum, with a maximum forfeiture of four (4) hours for late call-ins. In the event of an unforeseen emergency that would prohibit the compliance of the one-hour call-in, the forfeiture may be waived by the Chief of Police.

11.4 Sick leave may be used in segments of not less than one (1) hour.

11.5 Before an absence may be charged against accumulated sick leave, the Chief of Police may require such proof of illness, injury or death as may be satisfactory to him, or may require the employee to be examined by a physician designated by and paid for by the Employer. In any event, an employee absent for more than two (2) work days must supply a physician's report to be eligible for paid sick leave, unless waived by the Chief of Police.

11.6 If the employee fails to submit adequate proof of illness, injury or death, or in event that upon such proof as is submitted or upon the request of medical examination, the Chief of Police, finds there is not satisfactory evidence of illness or death sufficient to justify the employee's absence, such leave may be considered an unauthorized leave and shall be without pay.

Abuse may include, but is not limited to:

1. Consistent usage of sick leave and/or leave without pay in conjunction with scheduled time off of any type;
2. Consistent usage of sick leave, in one-day increments or less, as it is earned, resulting in an extremely low balance of sick leave as compared to time in service;
3. Consistent usage of sick leave for non-specific illness.

The Employer shall review the usage of sick leave, and if potential problems are identified, shall notify the employee when the potential problems are identified, so that the potential problems can be addressed and corrected. This initial notification of potential problems and the discussion of how the potential problem can be resolved will not count as a disciplinary action. Disciplinary action will be taken if there is an abuse of sick leave and/or leave without pay. Progressive discipline for reasons of sick leave/absence abuse will follow the City of Ashland's Standards of Conduct Attendance standard, section 1.2.

11.8 The Chief of Police may require an employee who has been absent due to personal illness or injury, prior to and as a condition of his return to duty, to be examined by a physician designated and paid by the Employer, to establish that he is not disabled from the performance of his duties and that his return to duty will not jeopardize the health and safety of other employees.

11.9 When the use of sick leave is due to illness or injury in the immediate family, "immediate family" shall be defined to only include the employee's spouse and children or non-residential children for whom the employee must assume immediate and/or temporary primary care (Children are defined as under eighteen (18) years of age); and the employee's children eighteen (18) years of age and older, parents or parents-in-law in the event of a medical emergency that requires the presence of the employee or for whom the employee has primary care with verifiable evidence. 11.11 Any employee who works a fixed six (6) month calendar-year period (January 1 – June 30; July 1 – December 31) without any use of sick leave shall be awarded one (1) Perfect Attendance Day. The City shall notify the employee each time that a day as been earned under this section, at which time the employee may elect to receive the earned day either in pay or time off. If an employee chooses to take the day as time off, the time must be taken within one (1) calendar year of the date earned or it will be paid at the applicable rate of pay. Leave used pursuant to Article

16 shall not affect the earning of such sick leave bonus. Days off earned under this section shall be scheduled in the same manner as paid leave under section 12.9 of this Agreement.

11.12 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, Civil Service Rules or Regulations or Ordinances, any employee hired by the Employer after January 1, 1988, who has previous full-time employment from being employed by the State of Ohio or any other political subdivision of the State of Ohio and who has become employed by the Employer within ten (10) years from his termination from such other public employer shall not be granted any credit towards his sick leave accumulation with the Employer.

Each election and use of compensatory time shall be applied toward the total number of maximum permitted accumulated and used hours under this provision.

B. As an employee exhausts his/her accrued compensatory time, he/she may further accrue compensatory time, however, subject to an annual usage cap of forty (40) hours. See Section A, above. Any employee who accrues compensatory time in excess of the maximum accrued hours shall be promptly paid for any overtime worked at the applicable rate.

first offer the overtime to the Clerk on shift at the time. If the on shift Clerk declines the overtime, the Department shall contact the most senior Clerk on a revolving call in list for full-time clerks. If the most senior Clerk accepts or rejects the offer of overtime, that person's name is then placed at the bottom of the list and the procedure is continued until the overtime is either filled or the list is exhausted. In the event the list of full-time Clerks is exhausted, the Department shall order the least senior full-time Clerk to fill the vacancy, unless the least senior Clerk is on approved leave, and then the next least senior full-time Clerk shall be ordered to fill the vacancy. Each time an order in is required, the Department shall move up to the next least senior full-time Clerk from the last Clerk that was ordered in. Refusal to obey the order may be grounds for discipline. Employees shall be assigned to work overtime in four (4) hour intervals. If an entire shift is available, the employee may choose to fill the entire shift as long as the employee is not required to work more than twelve (12) consecutive hours. Notwithstanding the above, each time an employee voluntarily accepts an overtime assignment, that employee shall not be ordered to work overtime again until all other available employees have been either ordered or voluntarily accepted an overtime assignment.

The Employer shall pay eighty percent (80%) of the premium. The Employer reserves the right to change insurers, providing the benefits are comparable to the existing coverage. The employee shall pay twenty percent of the premium.

19.3 The Employer shall provide a twenty thousand dollar ($20,000.00) term life insurance group policy for each full-time employee whose premiums shall be paid by the Employer.

ARTICLE 28 OBLIGATION TO NEGOTIATE

28.1 The Employer and the Union acknowledge that during negotiations which preceded this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining/negotiations and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties after the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement.

28.2 Therefore, for the life of this Agreement, the Employer and the Union each voluntarily and unqualifiedly waive the right, and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to negotiate collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to, or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subjects or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated and signed this Agreement.

ARTICLE 29

ARTICLE 31
RESERVED

ARTICLE 32
DISCIPLINE

32.1 This procedure shall apply to all non-probationary employees covered by this Agreement.

32.2 All employees shall have the following rights:

- A. An employee shall be entitled to representation by a Union representative at each step of the disciplinary procedure.

- B. An employee shall not be coerced, intimidated, or suffer any reprisals either directly or indirectly that may adversely affect his hours, wages, or working conditions as the result of the exercise of his rights under this procedure.

32.3 An employee may resign following the service of a Notice of Discipline. Any such resignation will be processed in accordance with the Employer's Rules and Regulations and the employee's employment shall be terminated.

32.4 Discipline shall be imposed only for just cause. Discipline will normally be applied in a corrective, progressive and uniform manner subject to review on a case-by-case basis. Progressive discipline shall take into account the nature of the violation, the employee's prior history of discipline and the employee's record of performance and conduct. The specific acts for which discipline is being imposed and the penalty proposed shall be specified in the Notice of Discipline. The Notice served on the employee shall contain a reference to dates, times and places, if possible.

Forms of disciplinary action may include:

- verbal warning (time, date and incident recorded);
- written reprimand;
- working suspension;
- suspension;
- fines (not in excess of five [5] days' pay or paid leave);
- demotion;
- discharge.

An employee who is given a working suspension shall be required to report to work to serve the suspension and shall be compensated at the regular rate of pay for hours worked. The working suspension shall be recorded in the employee's personnel file in the same manner as other disciplinary actions having the same effect as a suspension without pay for the purpose of recording disciplinary actions.

An employee who is given a fine shall have the option of using available paid leave (i.e., vacation, personal leave, sick leave bonus days, compensatory time) in lieu of a cash fine, provided the employee has such leave time accrued.

32.5 Where the Chief seeks as a penalty the imposition of a working suspension, a fine, a suspension without pay, a demotion or removal from service, notice of such discipline shall be made in writing and served on the employee personally or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

32.6 Except as provided in Section 32.12, discipline shall not be implemented until either:

1. the matter is settled, or

2. the employee fails to file a grievance within the time frame provided by this procedure, or
3. the penalty is upheld by the arbitrator or a different penalty is determined by the arbitrator.

32.7 The Notice of Discipline served on the employee shall be accompanied by written statement that:

1. the employee has a right to object by filing a grievance within five (5) working days of receipt of the Notice of Discipline;
2. the Grievance Procedure provides for a hearing by an independent arbitrator as its final step;
3. the employee is entitled to representation by a Union representative at every step of the proceeding;

32.8 If a grievance is filed and pursued within the time frames provided below, no penalty can be implemented, except as provided in section 32.6 and 32.12, until the matter is settled or the arbitrator renders a determination.

32.9. The following administrative procedures shall apply to disciplinary actions:

- A. The Chief and the employee involved are encouraged to settle disciplinary matters informally. Each side shall extend a good faith effort to settle the matter at the earliest possible time. The Chief is encouraged to hold an informal meeting with the employee for the purpose of discussing the matter prior to the formal presentation of written charges. The specific nature of the matter will be addressed, and the Chief may offer a proposed disciplinary penalty. The employee must be advised before meeting that she/he is entitled to representation by the Union during the initial discussion.
- B. If a mutually agreeable settlement is not reached at this informal meeting the Chief will, within ten (10) working days, prepare a formal Notice of Discipline and present it to the employee. If no informal meeting is held, the Chief may just prepare a Notice of Discipline and present it to the employee. The Notice of Discipline will include advice as to the employee's rights in the procedure, and the right of representation.
- C. Upon receipt of the Notice of Discipline, the employee may choose to accept the proposed discipline or to appeal by filing a grievance with the Mayor, pursuant to Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure. The appeal must be filed at Step 4 within five (5) working days from receipt of the Notice of Discipline.

32.10 A failure to submit an appeal within the above time limit shall be construed as an agreement to the disciplinary action by the affected employee and Union. All subsequent appeal rights shall be deemed waived.

32.11 A disciplinary matter may be settled at any time. The terms of the settlement shall be agreed to in writing. An employee executing a settlement shall be notified of the right to have a union representative or to decline any such representation. A settlement entered into by an employee shall be final and binding on all parties. The Union shall be notified of all settlements.

32.12 An employee may be suspended with pay at any time during the process. A working suspension, suspension without pay, a termination, a demotion, or fine (up to five (5) days) may be imposed concurrent with or subsequent to the decision at Step 4 of the Grievance Procedure.

32.13 The Union, on behalf of all the employees covered by this Agreement and its own behalf, hereby waives any and all rights previously possessed by such employees to a Safety Director's Inquiry and to appeal any form of disciplinary action (e.g., suspensions, fines, demotion or discharge) to any Civil Service Commission.

ARTICLE 33 GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

33.1 Every employee shall have the right to present his grievance in accordance with the procedures provided herein, free from any interference, coercion, restraint, discrimination or reprisal and except at Step 1, shall have the right to be represented by a person of his own choosing at all stages of the Grievance Procedure. It is the intent and purpose of the parties to this Agreement that all grievances shall be settled, if possible, at the lowest step of this procedure.

33.2 For the purposes of this procedure, the below listed terms are defined as follows:

- a) Grievance - A "grievance" shall be defined as a dispute or controversy arising from the misapplication or misinterpretation of the specific and express written provisions of this Agreement.
- b) Aggrieved Party - the "aggrieved party" shall be defined only as an employee or group of employees within the bargaining unit or the Union actually filing a grievance.
- c) Party in Interest - A "party in interest" shall be defined as any employee of the Employer named in the grievance who is not the aggrieved party.
- d) Days - A "day" as used in this procedure shall mean calendar days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and the holidays as provided in this Agreement.

33.3 The following procedures shall apply to the administration of all grievances filed under this Grievance Procedure.

- a) Except at Step 1, all grievances shall include the name and position of the aggrieved party; the identity of the provisions of this Agreement involved in the grievance; the time and place where the alleged events or conditions constituting the grievance took place; the identity of the party responsible for causing the grievance, if known to the aggrieved party; and a general statement of the nature of the grievance and the redress sought by the aggrieved party.
- b) Except at Step 1, all decisions shall be rendered in writing at each step of the Grievance Procedure. Each decision shall be transmitted to the aggrieved party and his representative, if any.
- c) If a grievance affects a group of employees working in different work locations, with different principals, or associated with an employer-wide controversy, it may be submitted at Step 3.
- d) The preparation and processing of grievances shall be conducted only during non-working hours, excluding the FOP/OLC associate who may process grievances during their work hours.
- e) Nothing contained herein shall be construed as admitting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the administration and having said matter informally adjusted without the intervention of the Union, provided that the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. In the event that any grievance is adjusted without formal determination, pursuant to this procedure, while such adjustment shall be binding upon the aggrieved party and shall, in all respects, be final, said adjustment shall not create a precedent.
- f) The aggrieved party may have a Union representative represent him/her at any step of the Grievance Procedure.
- g) This Grievance Procedure shall be the sole and exclusive procedure for remedies sought for alleged violations of this bargaining agreement.
- h) The time limits provided herein will be strictly adhered to and any grievance not filed initially or appealed within the specified time limits shall be deemed waived and void. If the Employer fails to reply within the specified time limit, the grievance shall automatically move to the next step by default. The time limits specified for either party may be extended only by written mutual agreement.
- i) This procedure shall not be used for the purpose of adding to, subtracting from, or altering in any way, any of the provisions of this Agreement.
- j) No other management representative participating in any of the various lower steps of the Grievance Procedure, shall have the power to settle the grievance in question until such proposed settlement is approved by the Chief.

33.4 All grievances shall be administered in accordance with the following steps of the Grievance Procedure.

Step 1: An employee who believes he may have a grievance shall notify his/her immediate supervisor of the possible grievance within ten (10) days of the occurrence of the facts giving rise to the grievance. The Supervisor will schedule an informal meeting with the employee and his representative, if the representative's presence is requested by the employee, within five (5) days of the date of the notice by the employee. The supervisor and the employee, along with the employee's representative will discuss the issues in dispute with the objective of resolving the matter informally. The supervisor shall give his answer within five (5) days of the meeting.

Step 2: If the aggrieved party initiating the grievance is not satisfied with the decision at the conclusion of Step 1, a written appeal of the decision may be filed with the Captain within five (5) days from the date of the rendering of the decision at Step 1. The Captain shall convene a meeting within ten (10) days of the receipt of the appeal. The meeting will be held with the aggrieved party and his/her representative, if he/she requests one. The Captain shall issue a written decision to the employee's representative, with a copy to the employee if he/she requests one, within ten (10) days from the date of the meeting.

Step 3: If the aggrieved party initiating the grievance is not satisfied with the decision at the conclusion of Step 2, a written appeal of the decision may be filed with the Chief of Police within five (5) days from the date of the rendering of the decision at Step 2. The Chief of Police shall convene a meeting within ten (10) days of the receipt of the appeal. The meeting will be held with the aggrieved party and his/her representative, if he/she requests one. The Chief shall issue a written decision to the employee's representative, with a copy to the employee if he/she requests one, within ten (10) days from the date of the meeting.

Step 4: If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the written decision at the conclusion of Step 3, a written appeal of the decision may be filed with the Mayor within five (5) days from the date of the rendering of the decision in step 3. Copies of the written decisions shall be submitted with the appeal. The Mayor or his designee shall convene a meeting within ten (10) days of the receipt of the appeal. The meeting will be held with the aggrieved party, his/her representative and any other party necessary to provide the required information for the rendering of a proper decision. The Mayor or his designee shall issue a written decision to the employee's representative, with a copy to the employee if the employee requests one, within fifteen (15) days from the date of the meeting. If the aggrieved party is not satisfied with the decision at Step 4, he/she may proceed to arbitration pursuant to the Arbitration Procedure herein contained.

ARTICLE 34 ARBITRATION

34.1 In the event a grievance is unresolved after being processed through all of the steps of the Grievance Procedure, unless mutually waived or having passed through the various steps by timely default of the Employer, then within ten (10) days after the rendering of the decision at Step 4 or a timely default by the Employer at Step 4, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration. Within this ten (10) day period, the parties will meet to attempt to mutually agree upon an arbitrator selected from the permanent panel created by this procedure. If such agreement is not reached, then the panel members' names will be stricken alternatively until one (1) name remains who shall be designated the arbitrator to hear the grievance in question.

34.2 The arbitrator shall have no power or authority to add to, subtract from, or in any manner, alter the specific terms of this Agreement or to make any award requiring the commission of any act prohibited by law or make any award that itself is contrary to law or violates any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

34.3 The arbitrator shall not decide more than one (1) grievance on the same hearing day(s), except by mutual written agreement of the parties.

34.4 The hearing or hearings shall be conducted pursuant to the "Rules of Voluntary Arbitration" of the American Arbitration Association.

34.5 The fees and expenses of the arbitrator and the cost of the hearing room, if any, will be borne by the party losing the grievance. All other expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them. Neither party shall be responsible for any of the expenses incurred by the other party.

34.6 The arbitrator's decision and award shall be in writing and delivered within thirty (30) calendar days from the date the record is closed. The decision of the arbitrator shall only be binding upon the parties.

34.7 There is hereby created a permanent panel of arbitrators to be used for the selection of an arbitration pursuant to this Arbitration Procedure. Those individuals placed on this panel shall be: 1) Dr. David Pincus; 2) Dr. Harry Graham; 3) Frank Keenan, Esq.; 4) Dennis Minni, Esq.; and 5) James Mancini, Esq. If, during the term of this agreement one or more of these individuals passes away, retires or is otherwise unable to serve on this permanent panel the parties shall confer and choose a mutually agreed upon replacement.

34.8 The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that may arise out of any determination that the Union failed to fairly represent a member of the bargaining unit during the exercise of his rights as provided by the Grievance and Arbitration Procedures herein contained.

SHIFT SELECTION

35.1 All employees, while assigned to the records section, at the discretion of the Employer, shall select annually in December, for the following year period, their preferred assignment on the basis of their seniority. The Employer shall reasonably attempt to grant preferred assignments on the basis of seniority.

35.2 Nothing contained herein shall limit the discretion of the Employer to determine the number of employees to be assigned to each shift, or the discretion of the Employer to assign employees to meet the requirements of the Department.

RESIDENCY

36.1 Except as set forth in this Section, all employees must reside within the territorial limits as set forth in Exhibit A, attached residency map. Employees may reside in all cities, villages or townships within Ashland County or within any city, village or township which the designated state route runs through on the attached residency requirement map.

36.2 If the Supreme Court of Ohio makes a final determination on SB 82 (Revised Code) on residency as being valid, Section 37.1 shall cease to have force or effect as it relates to residency for Ashland Police Clerks shall be subject to state law.

LAYOFF AND RECALL

37.1 Employees may be laid off as a result of lack of work or lack of funds, abolishment of positions, reasons for economy or efficiency, or curtailment of functions, as determined by the Employer. Whenever a layoff becomes necessary, the Employer shall determine the classification(s) which will be affected, and the number of employees to be laid off within each affected classification. Affected employees shall be given fourteen (14) calendar days advance written notice of any layoff. It is understood that no provisions of the Civil Service law or rules shall apply to layoffs and this procedure shall be the exclusive procedure.

37.2 Once the number of layoffs necessary have been determined by the Employer, affected employees shall be laid off based upon seniority. The least senior employee shall be laid off first, and then up the seniority list. For purposes of this Section, seniority shall be defined as the amount of time continuously employed by the City of Ashland, Division of Police.

37.3 Prior to any bargaining unit employee being laid off, the Employer shall first lay off seasonal employees, part-time employees, probationary employees and then full time employees.

37.4 Employees who have been laid off shall retain reinstatement rights to the positions from which they were laid off and be subject to recall by the Employer for a period of two (2) years from the effective date of the layoff. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the Employer advised through written notice of his/her current and accurate mailing address. The Employer shall not hire or promote any employee into an affected classification during the two (2) years period where employees have been laid off within such classification until such time as all affected employees within such classification have either been reinstated or have declined reinstatement.

37.5 Affected employees shall be notified in writing by the Employer of their right to reinstatement upon the Employer determining that it is feasible to recall such employees. Affected employees shall have fourteen (14) calendar days within which to notify the Employer, in writing, of their acceptance or rejection of the offer of reinstatement. Failure by the employee to notify the Employer of his decision within the established fourteen (14) calendar day period shall be considered a rejection of the offer of reinstatement.

37.6 For purposes of this Article, if the fourteenth (14th) calendar day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or observed holiday, the deadlines expressed herein will be automatically extended to the next regular workday. All written notices required of the employer or employee herein shall be by certified mail.

ARTICLE 38 UNION BUSINESS

38.4 Use of Intra-Department Mail. The Union shall be permitted to utilize the intra-departmental mail system for the purpose of providing information pertaining to Union business to bargaining unit representatives and to bargaining unit employees. The Union agrees that the use of the mail system will be reasonable and limited to providing information that is necessary for the normal conduct of Union business or bargaining unit representation.
