The employee shall be given a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the date and time of such hearing and may have a Union Representative of his/her choice present, if the employee so chooses. If an employee presents a clear and present danger to the health and/or safety of himself/herself, other employees, or persons and the employee's immediate removal from the workplace is required, the employee may be removed immediately and placed on paid leave until a disciplinary meeting is held and discipline is imposed. If circumstances require the imposition of more severe discipline due to actions of an employee, during work hours that lead to the employee being charged with a legal offense, the employee must be found guilty of the charge by a court of law before more severe discipline can be taken by the City.

Any employee charged with or under indictment for a felony may be placed on a leave of absence with pay. An employee found guilty by the trial court of a felony may be summarily discharged.

Oral reprimands shall be noted in the personnel file of the employee receiving such reprimand. Nothing shall be placed in the personnel file that does not contain the signatures of the employee and the supervisor. The signature of the employee does not necessarily mean the employee agrees with the discipline, only that they are aware of its existence. If the employee refuses to sign any document, the refusal will be noted on the document then placed in the file. The employee has the right to attach a letter of rebuttal to any discipline noted in the personnel file.

The mediator shall attempt to resolve the dispute and may make recommendations to the parties regarding the settlement of the dispute.
